WOODBINE 1959
VOLUME 9
PRESENTED BY THE SENIOR CLASS
JAMES WOOD HIGH SCHOOL
FREDERICK COUNTY
WINCHESTER, VIRGINIA

FOREWORD

A world is at our feet. We see the goals, opportunities, and responsibilities of our future as we raise our heads proudly and look forward with optimism.

Yet we can not help but turn slowly to look nostalgically back at the fleeting, wonderful years. They were filled with humor and joy; dreams and accomplishments; and the pain and glory of growing.

2 We made cherished friendships, gained wisdom, and found a sense of unity that will be with us throughout our entire lives.

This Woodbine is our small attempt as the graduating class of 1959 to preserve our love, devotion, and our experiences for those that were not a part of it. We remember so much and regret our departure but we are proud as we confidently go forward.

ALMA MATER

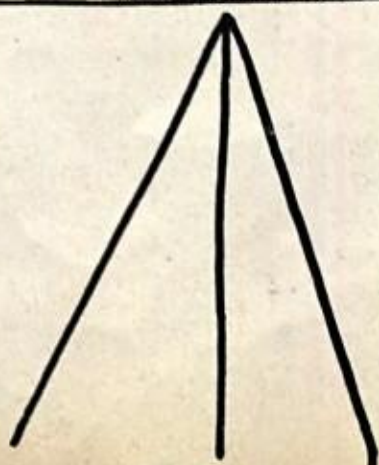

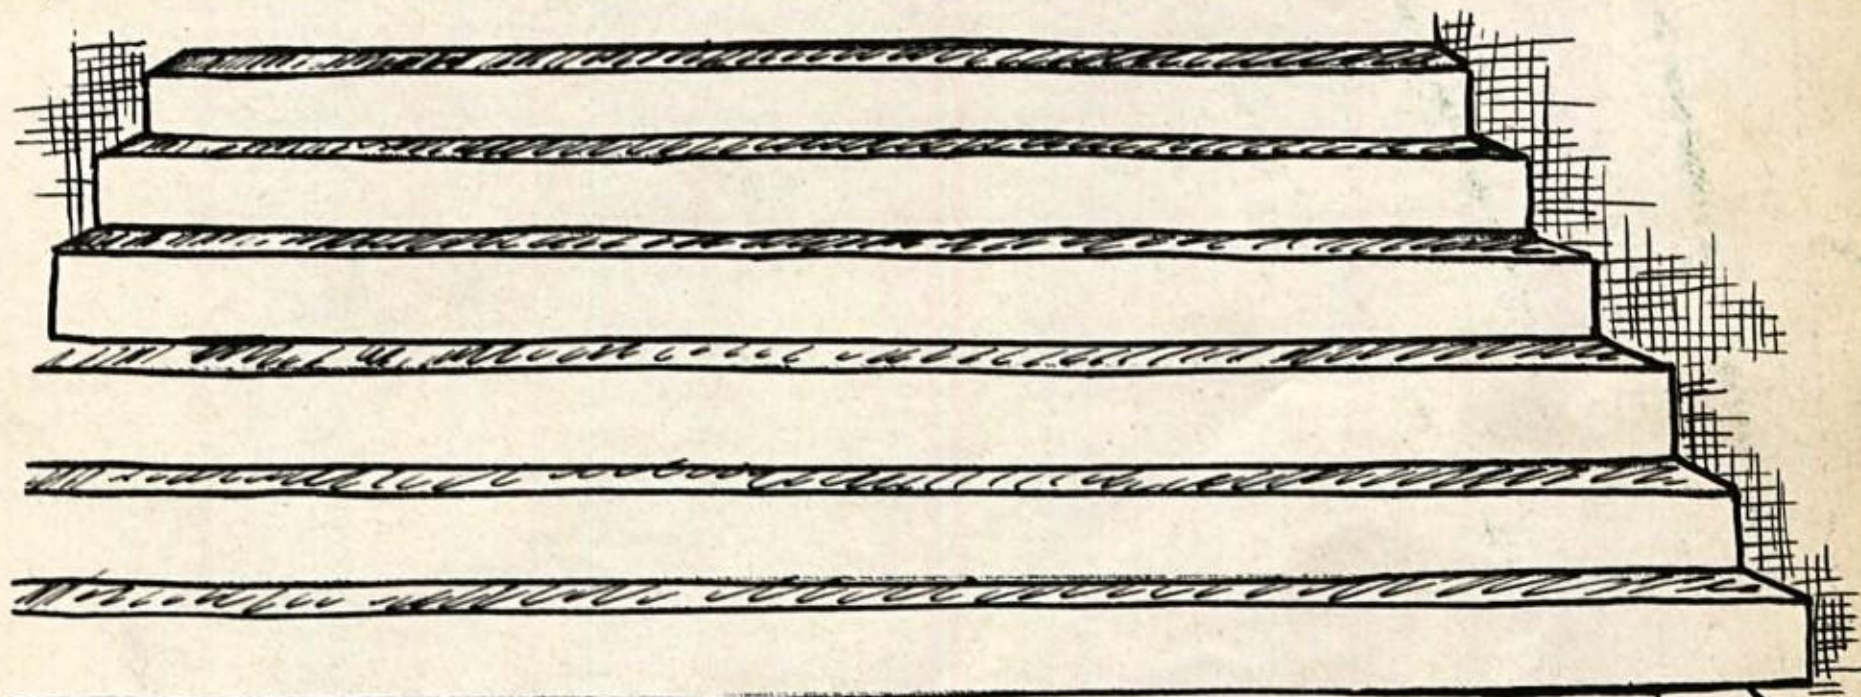

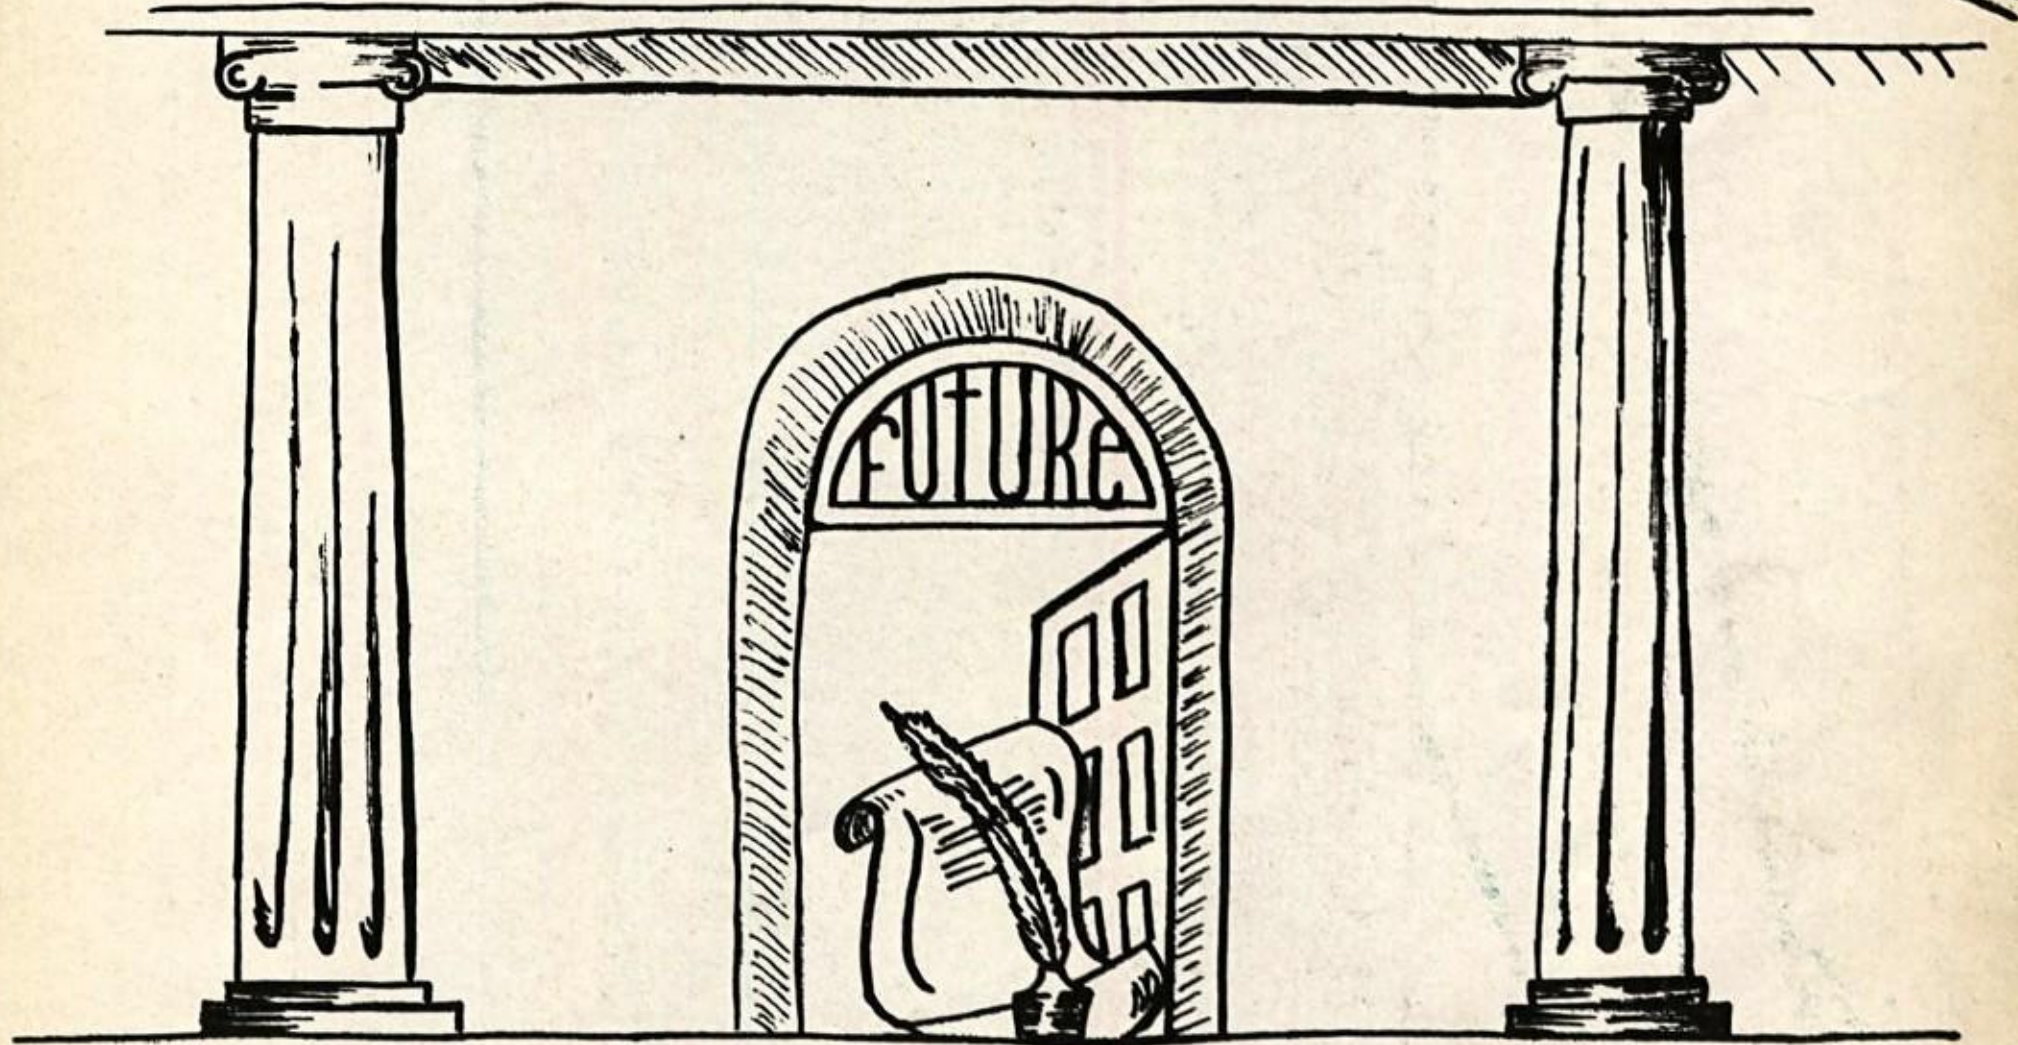

*By the city that he founded,
Heart of Frederick lands,
James Wood High, our Alma Mater,
In her beauty stands.
From five schools of age and service came her history.
Now we all give full devotion,
James Wood, Hail to thee.*

*Days with James Wood ne'er are over for with school days through,
As alumnae we will ever
keep her service true.
Be our years but few or many,
fraught with joy or woe,
We will sing to James Wood praises, whereso'er we go.*

*Tho for future we are planning
lives of useful joy,
Memories of youth are longest
May they never cloy.
Onward ever! be the watchword
conquer and prevail,
Hail to thee, dear James Wood High School!
Hail to thee! All Hail!*

DEDICATION

In respect and admiration the Seniors of 1959 wish to dedicate the Woodbine to MR. HUGH REXROAD, their friend and guide. Through faithful co-operation and constant help to each senior, he has endeared himself to us and we can only say a sincere "thank you" and hope that he will know of the honor we wish to bestow upon the one whom we admire and respect.

FACULTY

AND

ADMINISTRATION

MR. ROBERT AYLOR

SUPERINTENDENT

One of the greatest joys of my life comes from the knowledge that I am helping to provide educational opportunities for the young people of Frederick County. Therefore, my work with you, as students of the James Wood High School, has brought me much personal satisfaction. James Wood is a growing institution and you have helped greatly in its development.

I wish to congratulate you, the members of the Class of 1959, for your accomplishments so far and wish for all of you much happiness and success in the years ahead.

SCHOOL BOARD

MR. AND MRS. JAMES C. GORDON

To each member of the graduating class of James Wood High School, I extend my sincere congratulations. It is my hope that the skills and knowledge gained here will help you to become useful and courageous citizens in our democracy.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

DIRECTOR OF INSTRUCTION

MR. MELTON WRIGHT who is the Director of Instruction for Frederick County works with the faculty and other school personnel to improve instruction. He aids teachers in the selection of textbooks; holds group meetings, conferences, and workshops for the faculty; and keeps abreast of new books, films, pamphlets, and other educational aids.

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

MR. MELVIN FAWCETT, our assistant principal, teaches science and government, issues absentee cards, and patrols the halls, cafeteria, and buses.

BOOKKEEPER- SECRETARY

Our bookkeeper, MISS LUCY PAINTER, handles all the financial business of the school. She pays bills, banks money, and types and mails all correspondence.

CUSTODIANS

We owe our custodians a vote of thanks for keeping our school clean and attractive. Efficiently and unobtrusively they attend to the heating, upkeep, and cleaning of James Wood.

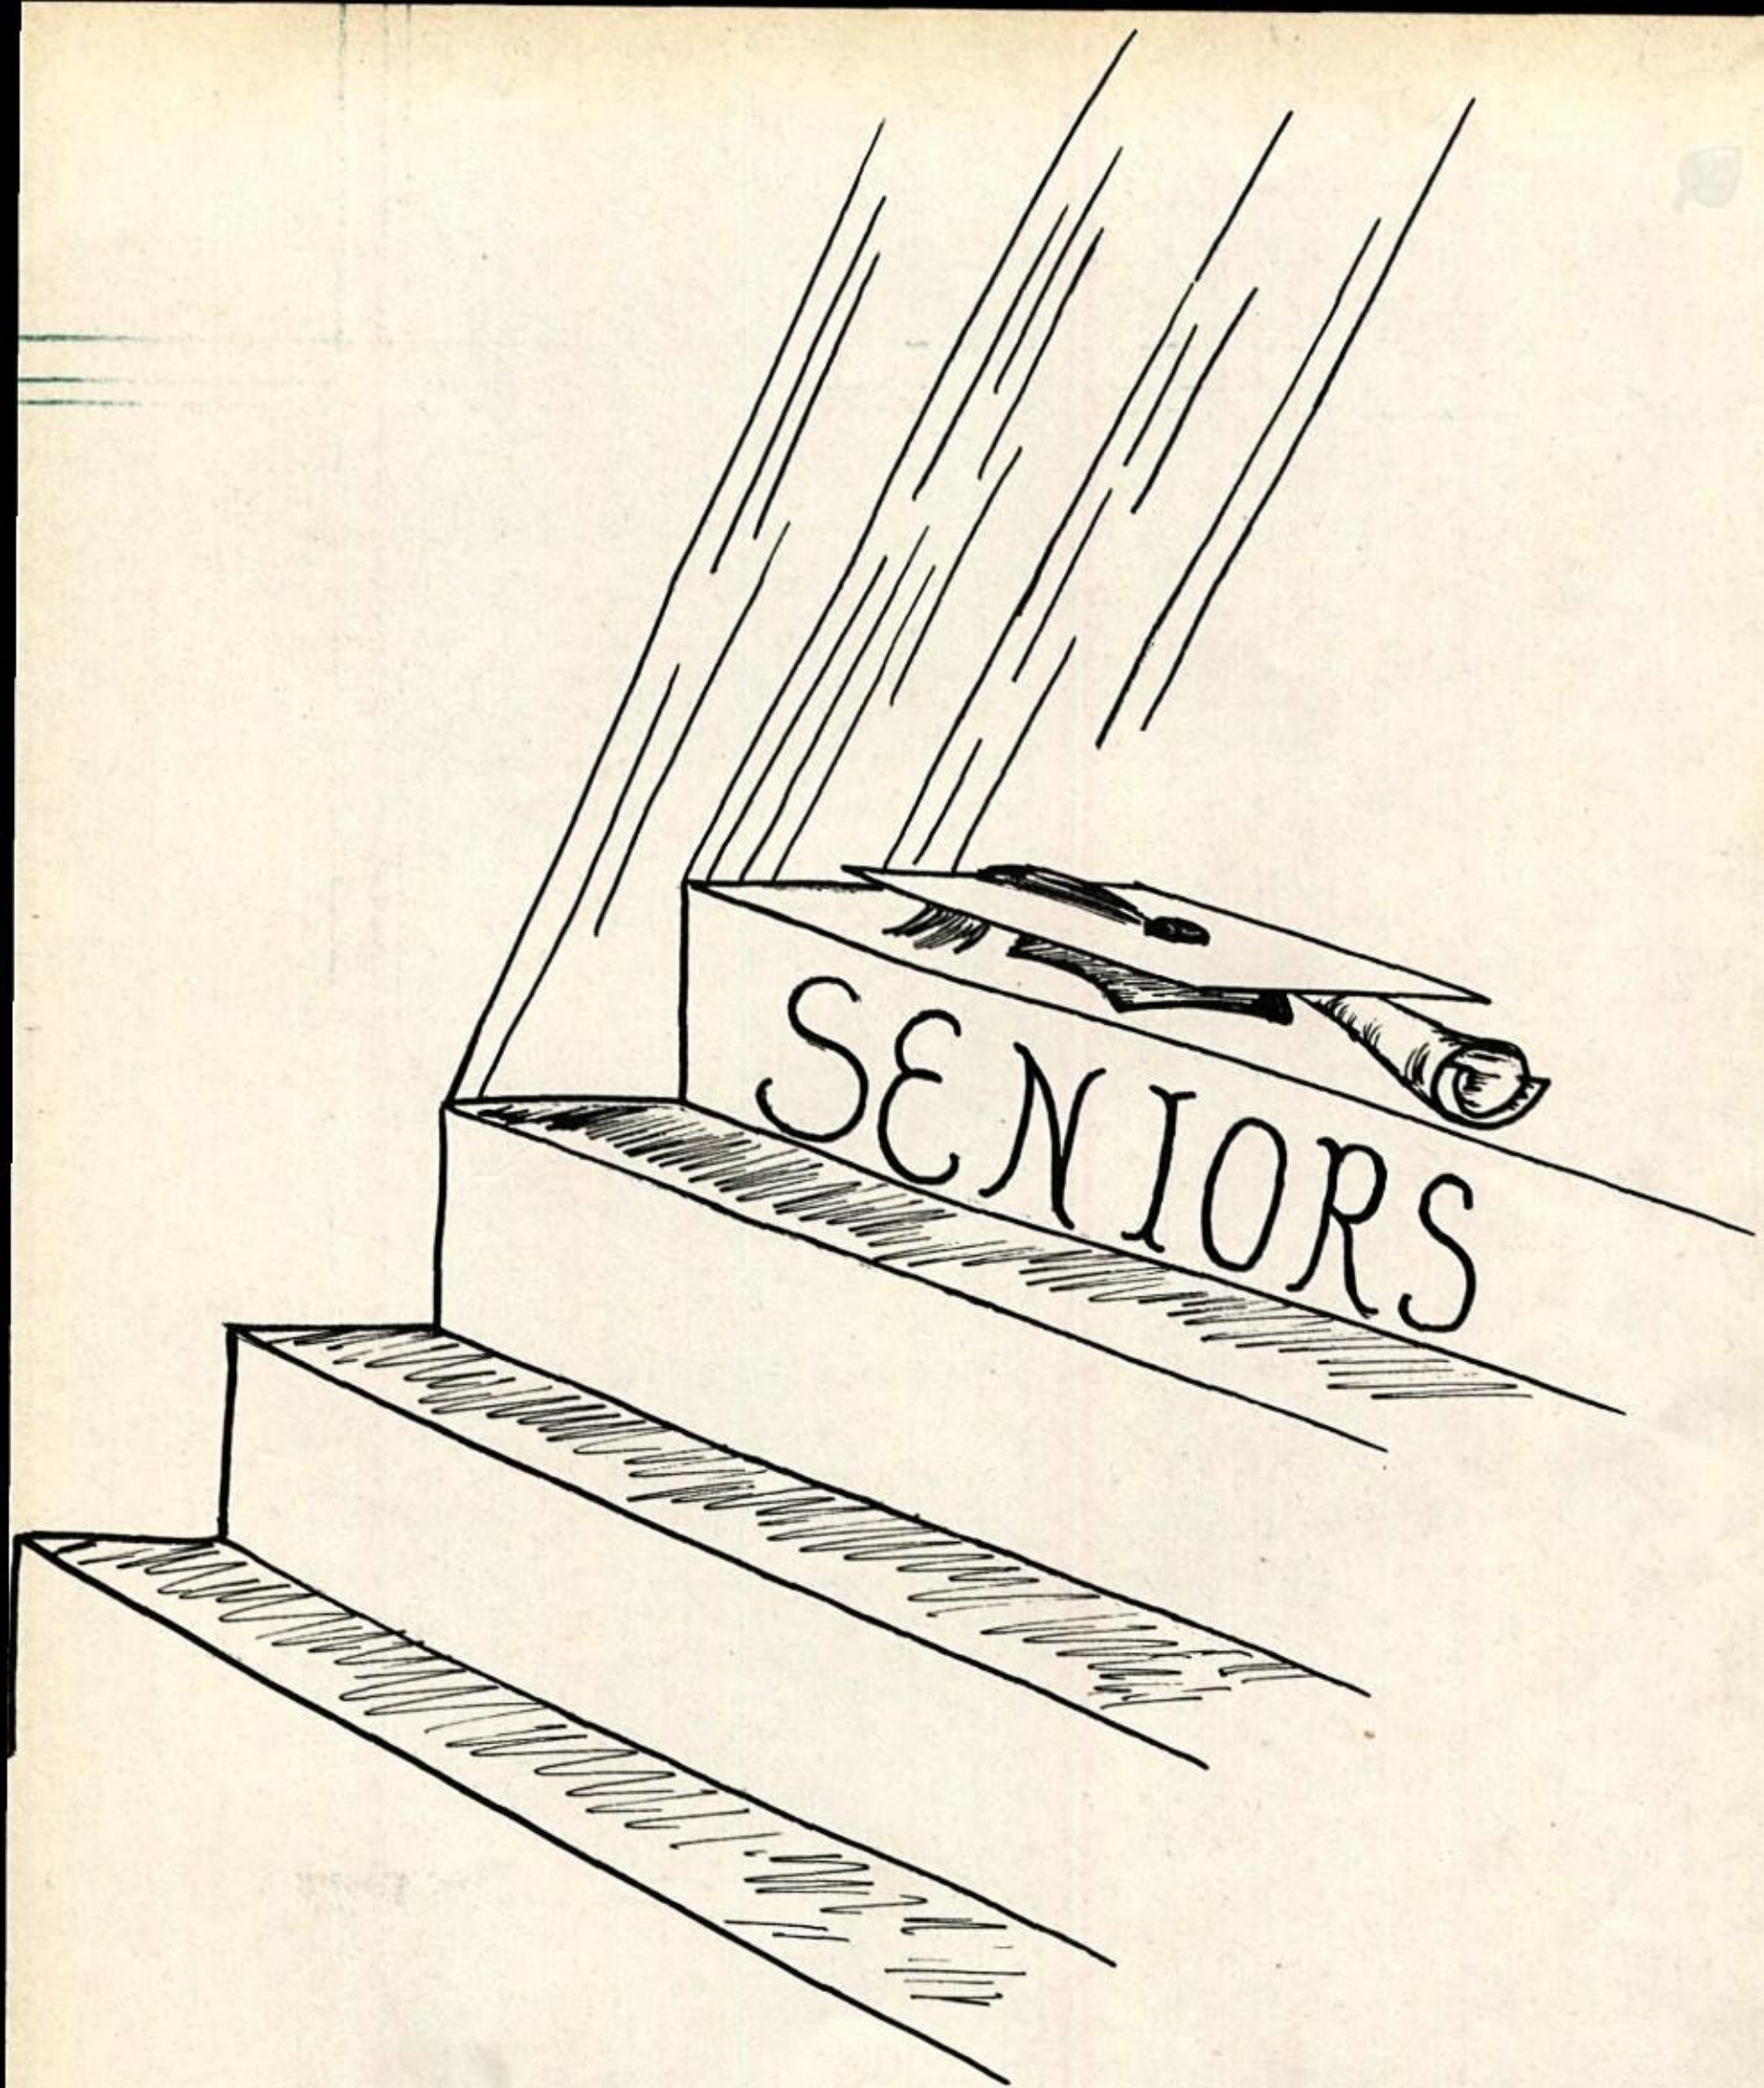

A PLAN OF LIFE

*To gain a share of life's success
Will be our everlasting goal.
Though early life is emptiness
We'll strive until we have the whole
Of blessings which on earth abound
But through neglect are seldom found.*

*We pause a moment where we are
To see just what things we have done,
And though we haven't gone so far
We know that life has just begun.
We turn to God, his help we ask,
Then each returns to his own task.*

*We now stand ready to begin
To find a better way to live.
We leave behind our pain and sin
And learn to love and care and give.
We look ahead and now we see
We'll have this peace eternally.*

IN MEMORIAM

To LAWRENCE EUGENE PUFFENBURGER whom we were proud to know and call a classmate and friend.

SENIOR SPONSORS

The Seniors of the the class of 1959 were indeed privileged to have the wonderful help, co-operation and understanding of its two sponsors, Miss Nancy Gardner and Mr. James Biddle.

Words can not fully show the appreciation desired to be expressed by this group of young men and women; however, Miss Gardner and Mr. Biddle have so willingly supported and encouraged our group that we can not stop with just a mere thank you.

Few people realize the many hours of hard work shown by these wonderful people, during major and minor activities. They were always there; constantly aware of our need and supplying us with the encouragement necessary to bring about the completion of our task. This certainly in itself is merit for outstanding praise, but again Miss Gardner and Mr. Biddle both went further than to fulfill the responsibilities of good sponsors.

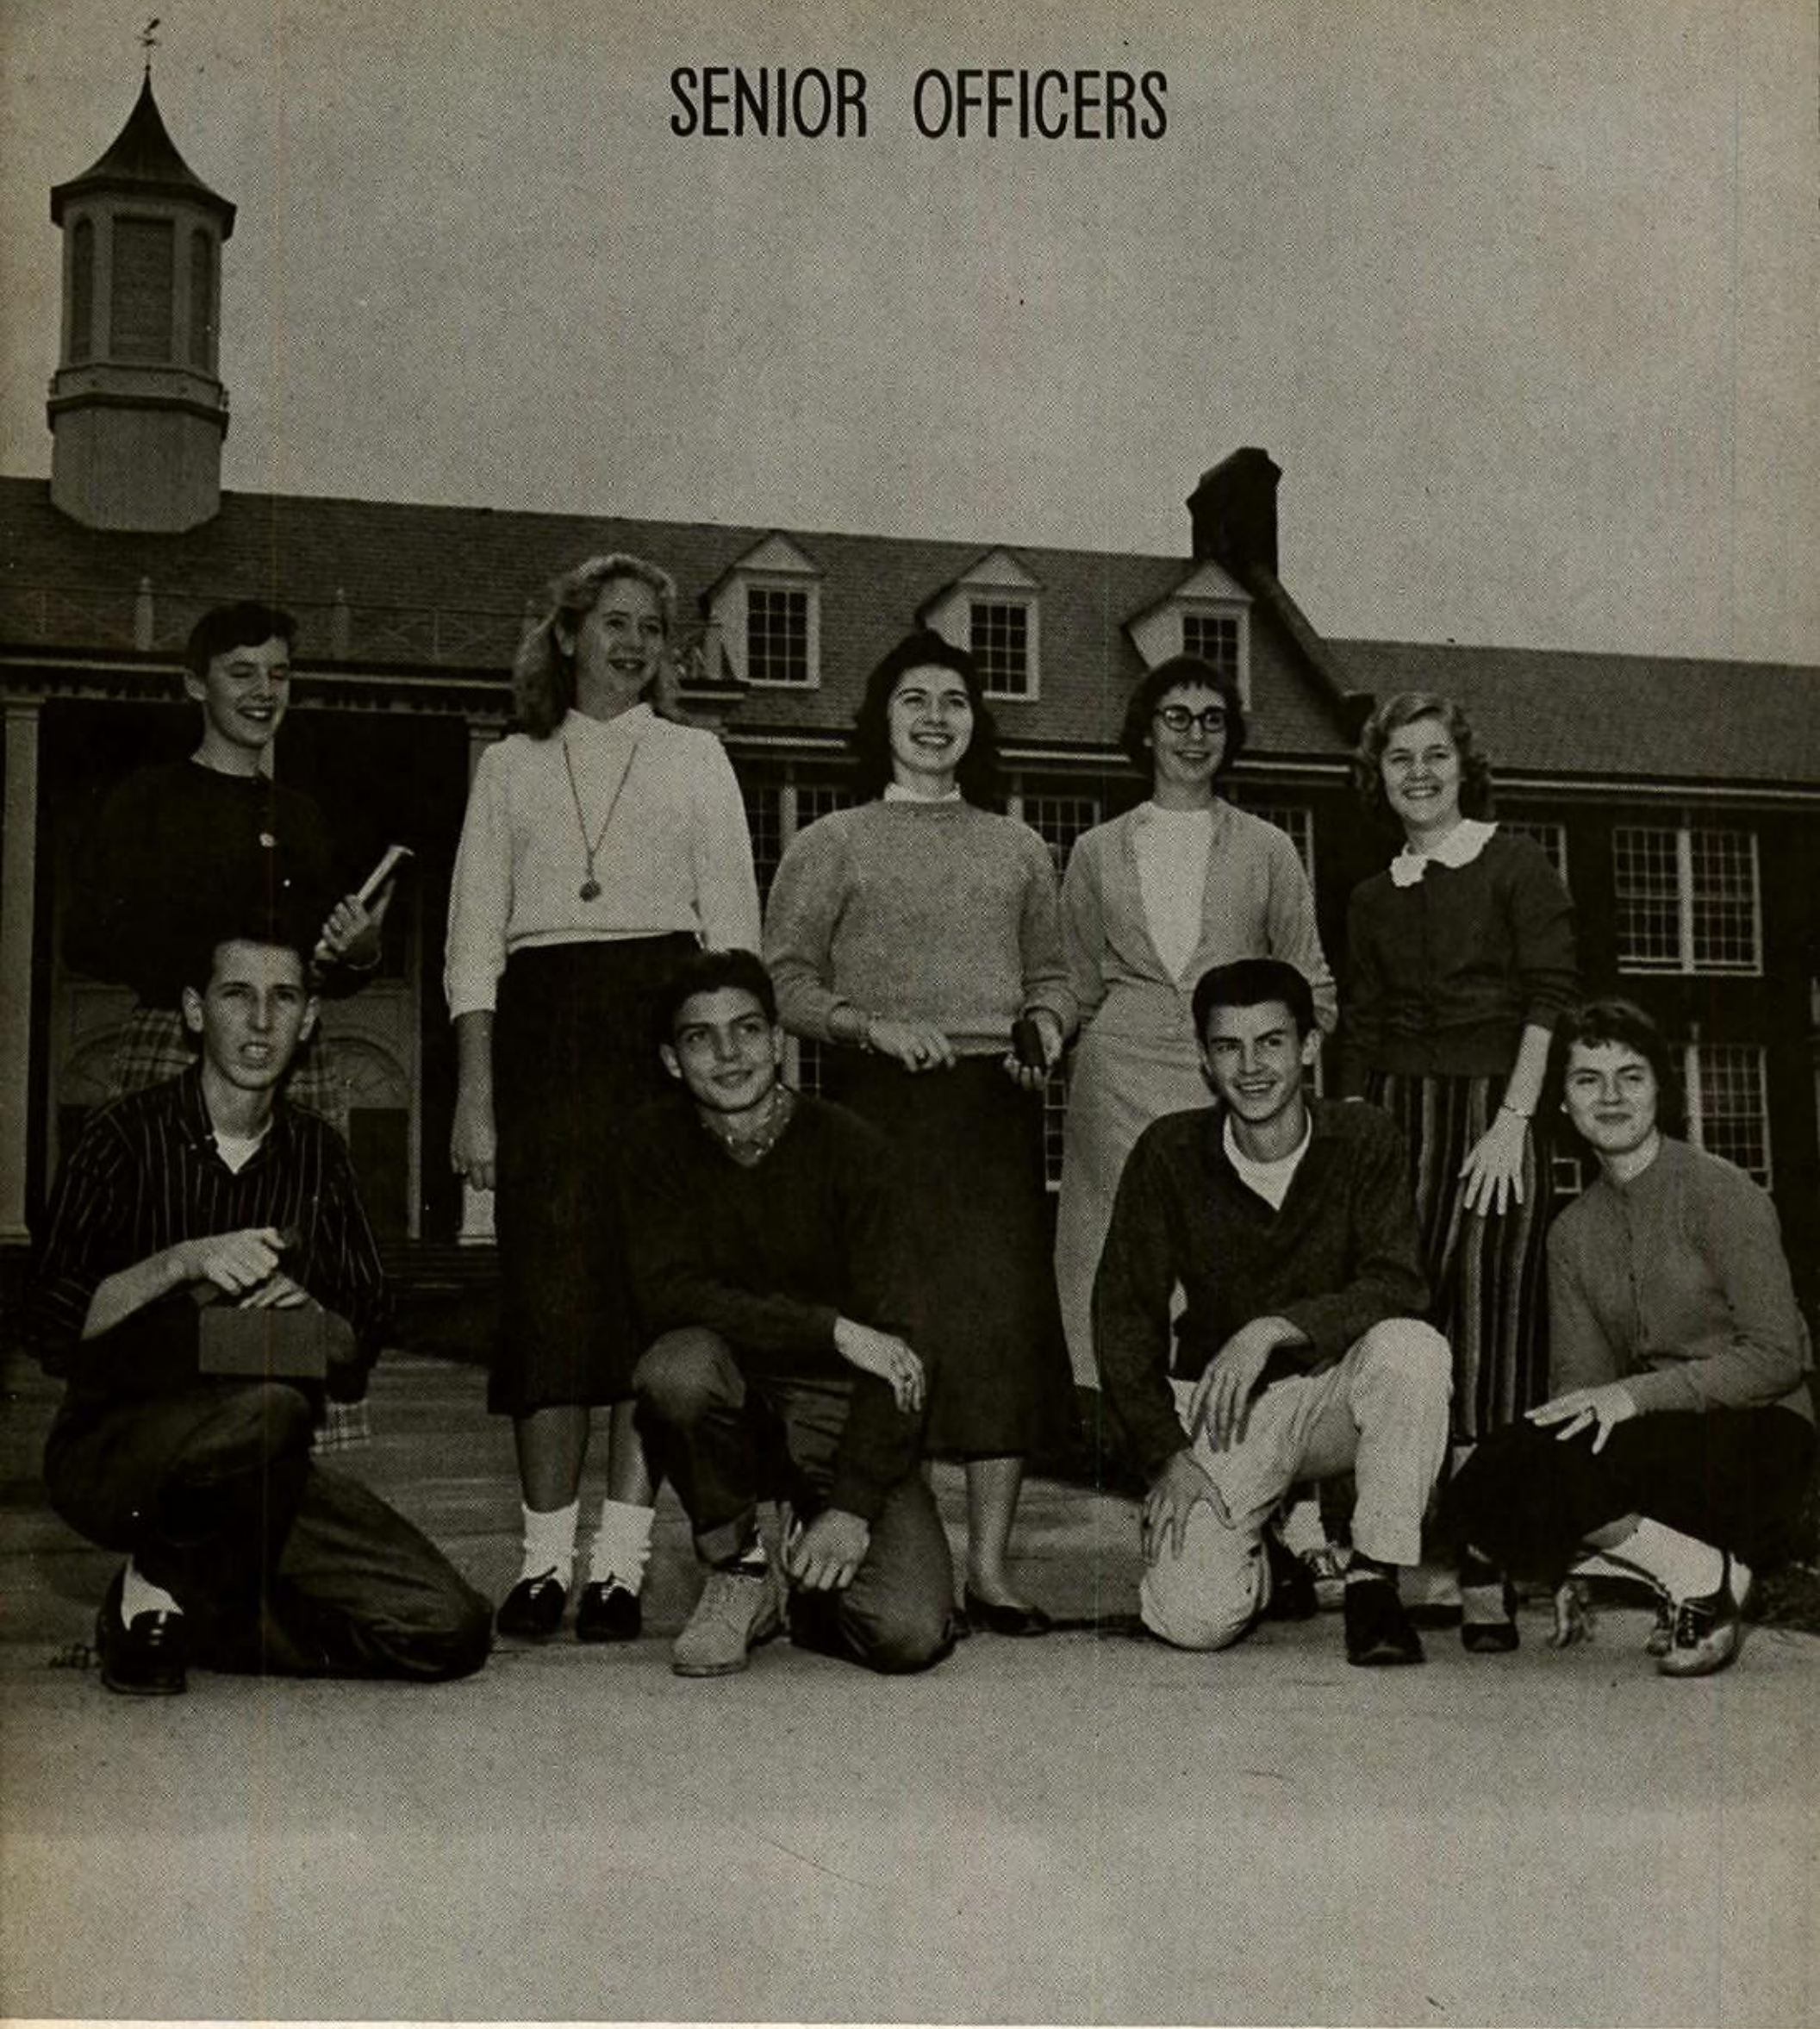

Miss Gardner, our Junior Class sponsor last year, helped to start us in the right way. Mr. Biddle, our Woodbine and class sponsor stepped into his position with real interest and friendship for each student. This is where the big reason for recognition lies. Every student desires to like and to be liked by a teacher.

Miss Gardner and Mr. Biddle, you have treated us as friends as well as students, you have personally acknowledged us and made us realize you were interested in each one of us as an individual, you have helped us solve problems and tried to show each of us more insight in all phases of our life.

Yes, somewhere there should be words that show our heartfelt, our deep appreciation, but for now we will have to say very simply, thank you Miss Gardner, thank you Mr. Biddle. We will never forget you; you have made a great impression on our lives. Again we thank you.

SENIOR OFFICERS

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

A group of unpolished, unassuming young people met five years ago in a way that only now can be called outstanding.

During the gap of the five years, so many things have taken place: As a group of freshmen, we selected our class colors, green and white, our class flower, the white carnation, and our class motto, "Through God Our Future is Brightened."

As most young people are interested in making their own plans, we took an active part in the Student Government and sent delegates to the district and state conventions. Along with the upper classmen, we joined hand-in-hand in the extracurricular activities.

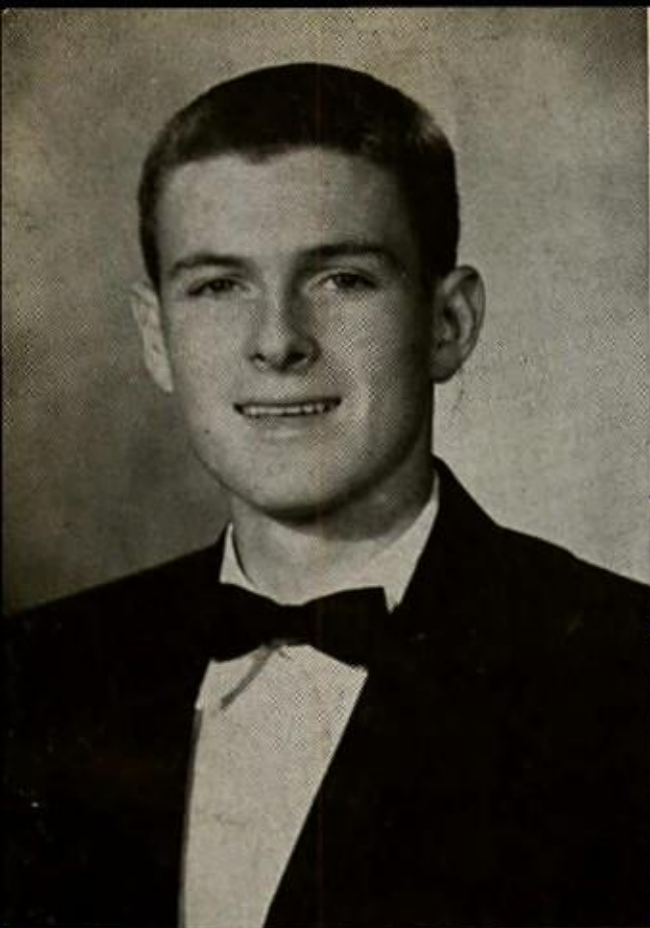

Time came for us to prepare for the school our Junior Class Play, and we selected a comedy, "Hessie of the Hill," which had an unusual outdoor scene. With the proceeds of the play we gave the seniors a prom which we think they will never forget. "Stairway to the Stars" was the theme of the prom and all danced under the silvery heavens and before a stairway which led to the stars. Our class sponsors, Mr. James Gordon and Miss Nancy Gardner, gave us the help and confidence which we needed to accomplish all our tasks.

Finally our big year has come and we are now the seniors. This year our class sponsors are Mrs. Nancy G. Spry and Mr. James A. Biddle. The class has elected as its president Phyllis Brannon, who has shown her ability to lead her class in its functions. Our largest tasks are the editing of the school newspaper, the Wood Post, and the year-book, the Woodbine. This year the members of our class have shown their abilities as leaders of the school and of the organizations by serving as the presidents and other leading officers.

Through these past five years we have grown in knowledge and in friendship and our fondest memories will be associated with the feeling of unity and deep friendship which has grown between all the members of the Senior Class of '59.

The same group that once was shy and afraid to face the responsibilities that the world places upon its shoulders, now looks calmly, unafraid, and with optimism to the rapid meeting they will experience with life, soon after graduation.

Sadness may at times reign over the emotions of these now young adults, but they will become of their endeavors during school and be able to find their own personal happiness.

DRIVER TRAINING

Mr. Casey instructs a driver training student in the principles of vehicle operation.

The driver training program at James Wood does a great deal toward making the high school students better and therefore safer drivers. The first part of this course consists of classroom study in which the students learn the driving laws of Virginia, the safe driving procedures, and the main functions of the various parts of the car. After completing this classroom work, some of the students are selected to take training in the actual operation of the training car. This driving experience teaches the students to be more careful, courteous drivers on the highways of America.

DEBATE TEAM

James Wood has entered the District 10 Debate Contest for the last four years. The first year James Wood failed to place but has won the district for the last three years. Such subjects have been debated as: Farm Parity, Universal Military Training, Foreign Aid, and United Nations. This year's topic is: Resolved: that the United States should adopt the essential features of the British system of education.

District 10 uses the Oregon plan of debate using both a positive and negative team with cross examination.

ACTIVITIES

A GM representative demonstrates mechanics of miniature sun car to Rodney and Sue.

Roy Nester shows some James Wood students fundamentals of broadcasting.

ACTIVITIES

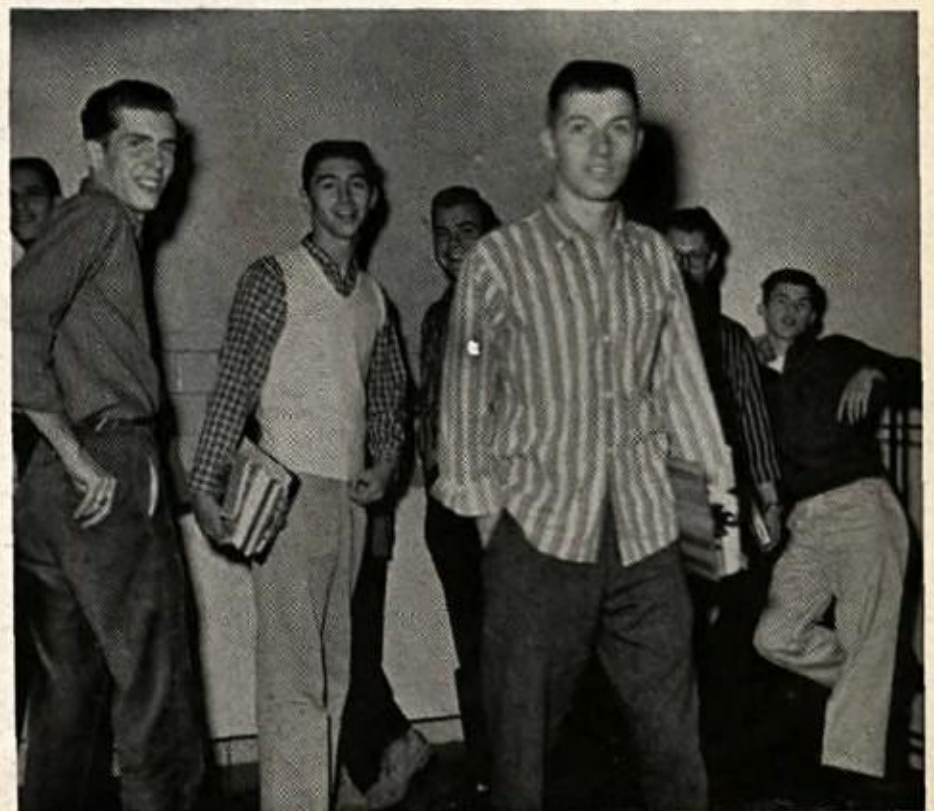

"What do you mean she's wearing tennis shoes under that gown?"; is the question asked backstage at the Beta Beauty Contest.

COLLEGE DAY

Several students talk with the Marion representative.

Since many students are undecided as to which type of professional training they are interested in or which school they wish to attend, College Day is a very important and informative event at James Wood. College Day is held one day during the school year and all the major colleges of the area are represented; there are also representatives of the Armed Forces and of nursing schools. All interested juniors and seniors are invited to come and talk to the representatives from the schools they are most interested in.

Such questions as "What courses are available?" "What are the entrance requirements?"

"How large is your student body?" are among the many questions asked by the students. The representatives answer these questions and advise students to the best of their ability. They also give pamphlets and hand books to the students. If any student wants additional information, the representatives will mail it to them. All students are cordially invited to visit the schools.

After attending College Day, students are better able to make sound decisions as to which school they wish to attend and which type of training they are interested in.

The Lynchburg representative discusses his college with this group.

This year Mrs. Louise Zuckerman is the school nurse for Frederick County. She has her office at James Wood, but visits the various schools in the county.

Girls in the junior and senior classes, who are planning to enter the field of nursing, work in the infirmary during their study hall. They learn the proper way to take temperatures, make beds, keep the clinic room in order and to administer First Aid to the students in the school.

This is the first year that Frederick County has had a school nurse and we are indebted to Mrs. Zuckerman for the fine work that she has done in our schools.

LANGUAGES

4 x 100

At James Wood we have an adequate language program that provides the college bound student with a preparatory course in Spanish and Latin as well as in English.

The Latin and Spanish classes respectively make up the Latin Club and Spanish Club. The purpose of these clubs is to develop an interest in the field of languages and to encourage more students to continue work along these lines.

English is one of the most important subjects taught in the modern high school. It is required that every student take English throughout the four years of high school. English, also, provides an excellent foundation for college work.

SCIENCE

Sandra,
Best of luck
to you. I don't want you to come with your father anymore!
Johnny
Coffey

Miss Gardener points out the parts of the ear to interested students.

Students measure liquids to use in an experiment under the direction of Miss Roudolph.

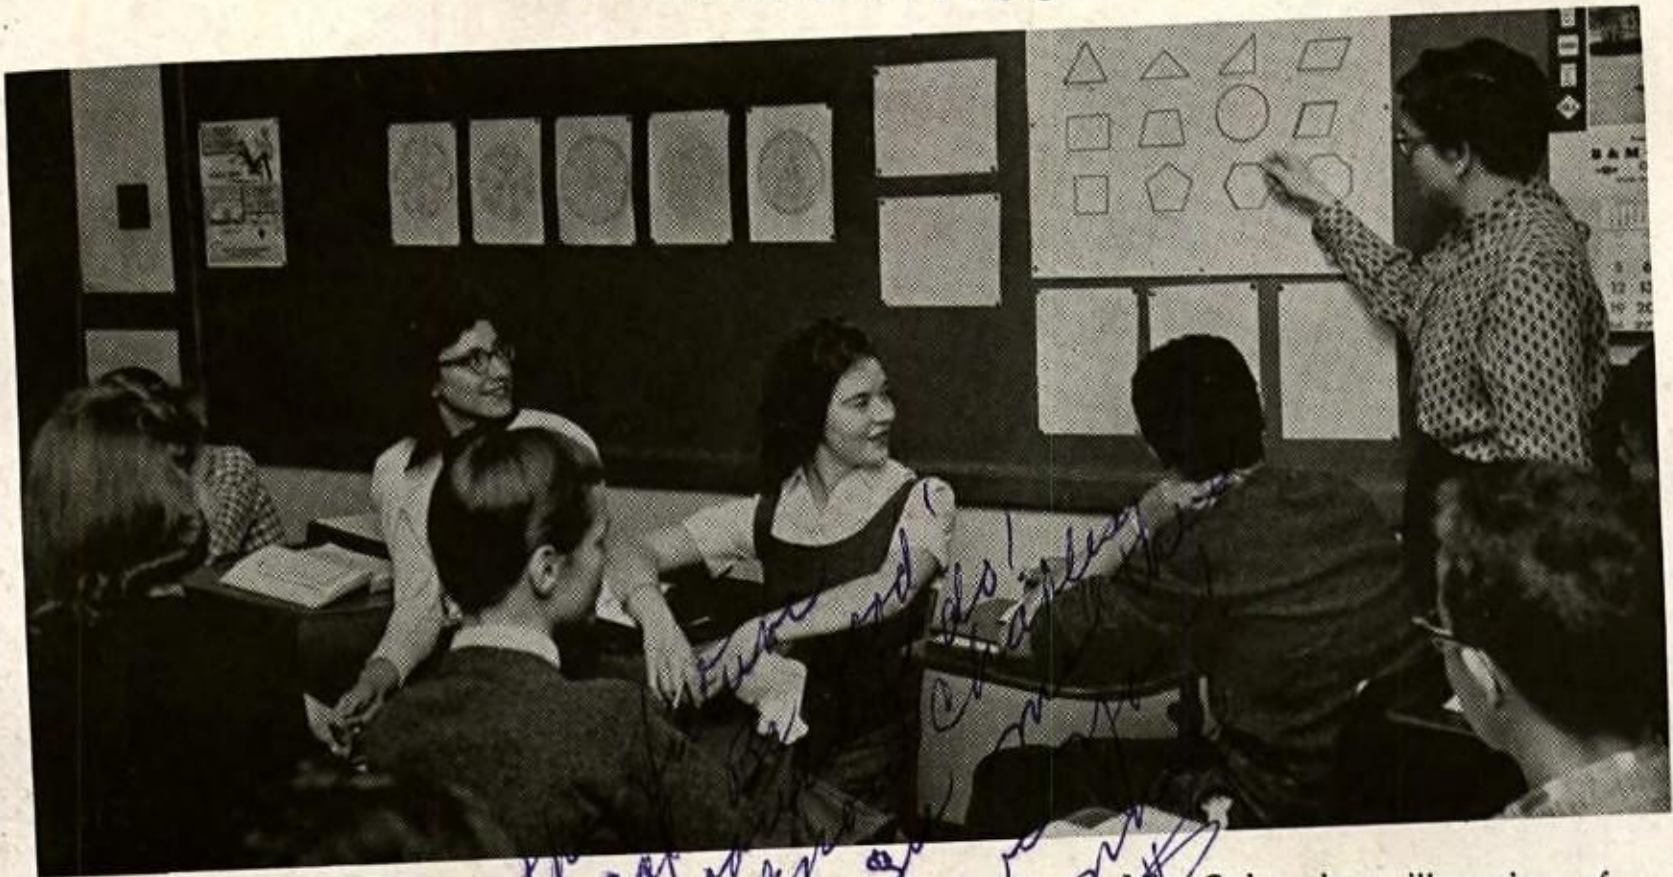

The science department seeks to widen the basis of scientific information in the pupil, interest the students in its many opportunities, and find students who are definitely interested in science as a career, especially in the atomic world of today.

In the eighth grade courses in general science are offered as introductions to Biology, Chemistry, and Physics which are foundations for further study in advanced schools and colleges. These lead to vocations in the many fields of science today.

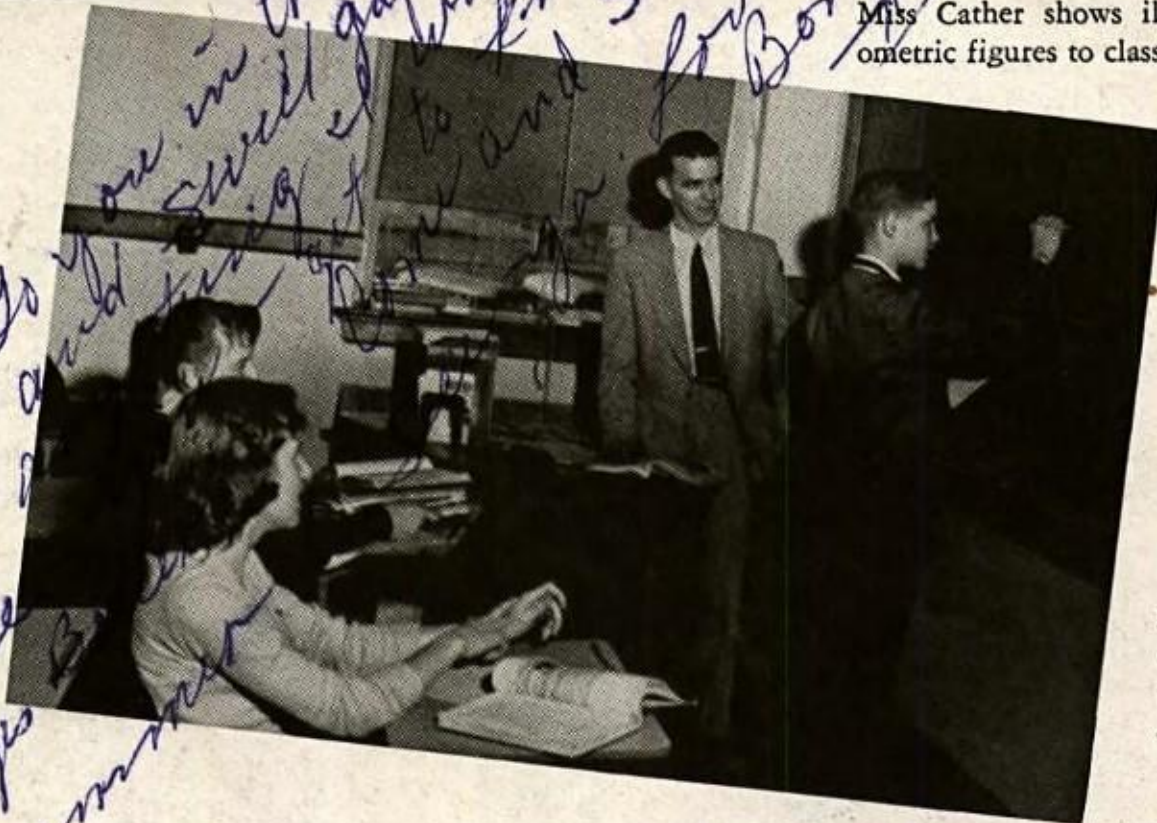

Mr. Hootman explains the principles involved in working with mechanical advantage.

MATHEMATICS

Miss Cather shows illustrations of geometric figures to class.

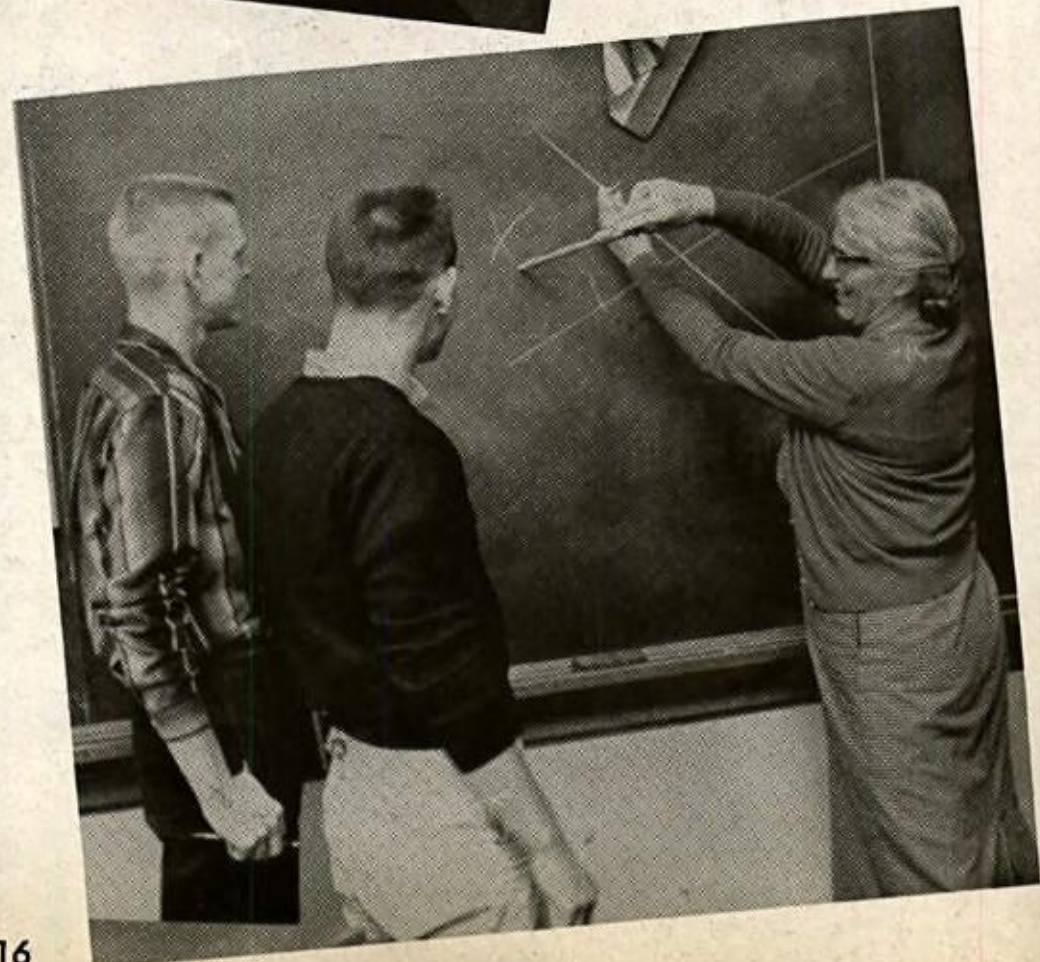

General math, here being taught by Mr. Miller, provides a foundation for higher math courses.

Mrs. Saunders gives students of geometry class an illustration in bisecting the angles of two intersecting lines.

Engineers and technicians are becoming an ever increasing need in our country today. The mathematics courses at James Wood try to prepare the interested student for such undertakings and strive to give them a well established background in math. James Wood offers a four year course in math which includes two years of algebra, plane geometry, solid geometry, and trigonometry.

For the student who does not wish to concentrate on higher math, a course in general math is available. These courses give the student a background which will be invaluable to him for the remainder of his life.

SOCIAL STUDIES

A senior's big worry has always been government. Mr. Funkhouser tries to help his students understand the course.

Mr. Koontz takes time to point out the wonderful freedoms that the constitution provides for each of us.

"Around the World In 80 Days" is a trip anyone would like to take. These students listen to Mr. Fazzalore as he shows them what they may see if they are so fortunate.

ART

Mitzi puts the finishing touches on her water color painting as it is viewed with interest.

Even students who don't take art can find on display pictures of subjects in which they have an interest.

The purpose of the Art Department is two-fold. It is hoped that, through its activities, the student will develop his own creative ability, and will come to make use of this new-found ability in his leisure time.

To aid in developing his creativity, the student is given the opportunity of exploring many different mediums. Among these are pencil, charcoal, ink, tempera paint, water color, cut paper, linoleum block printing, and variations of these. Color theory is presented also.

An important addition to the Art Department this year is a clay kiln, which makes possible the exciting activity of clay sculpture, including firing and glazing.

The other main objective of the program is to instill in the student, a love of beauty in all its form. A study of art, from primitive times down to the present day, is made with an illustrated text as the guide. This phase of the program culminates in a tour of the National Gallery of Art, in Washington, where students may view "first hand" the many priceless art treasures on display.

Posters for club displays, bulletin boards, and assembly programs are often the responsibility of the art classes.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

Two boys are using a hacksaw to sever a pipe.

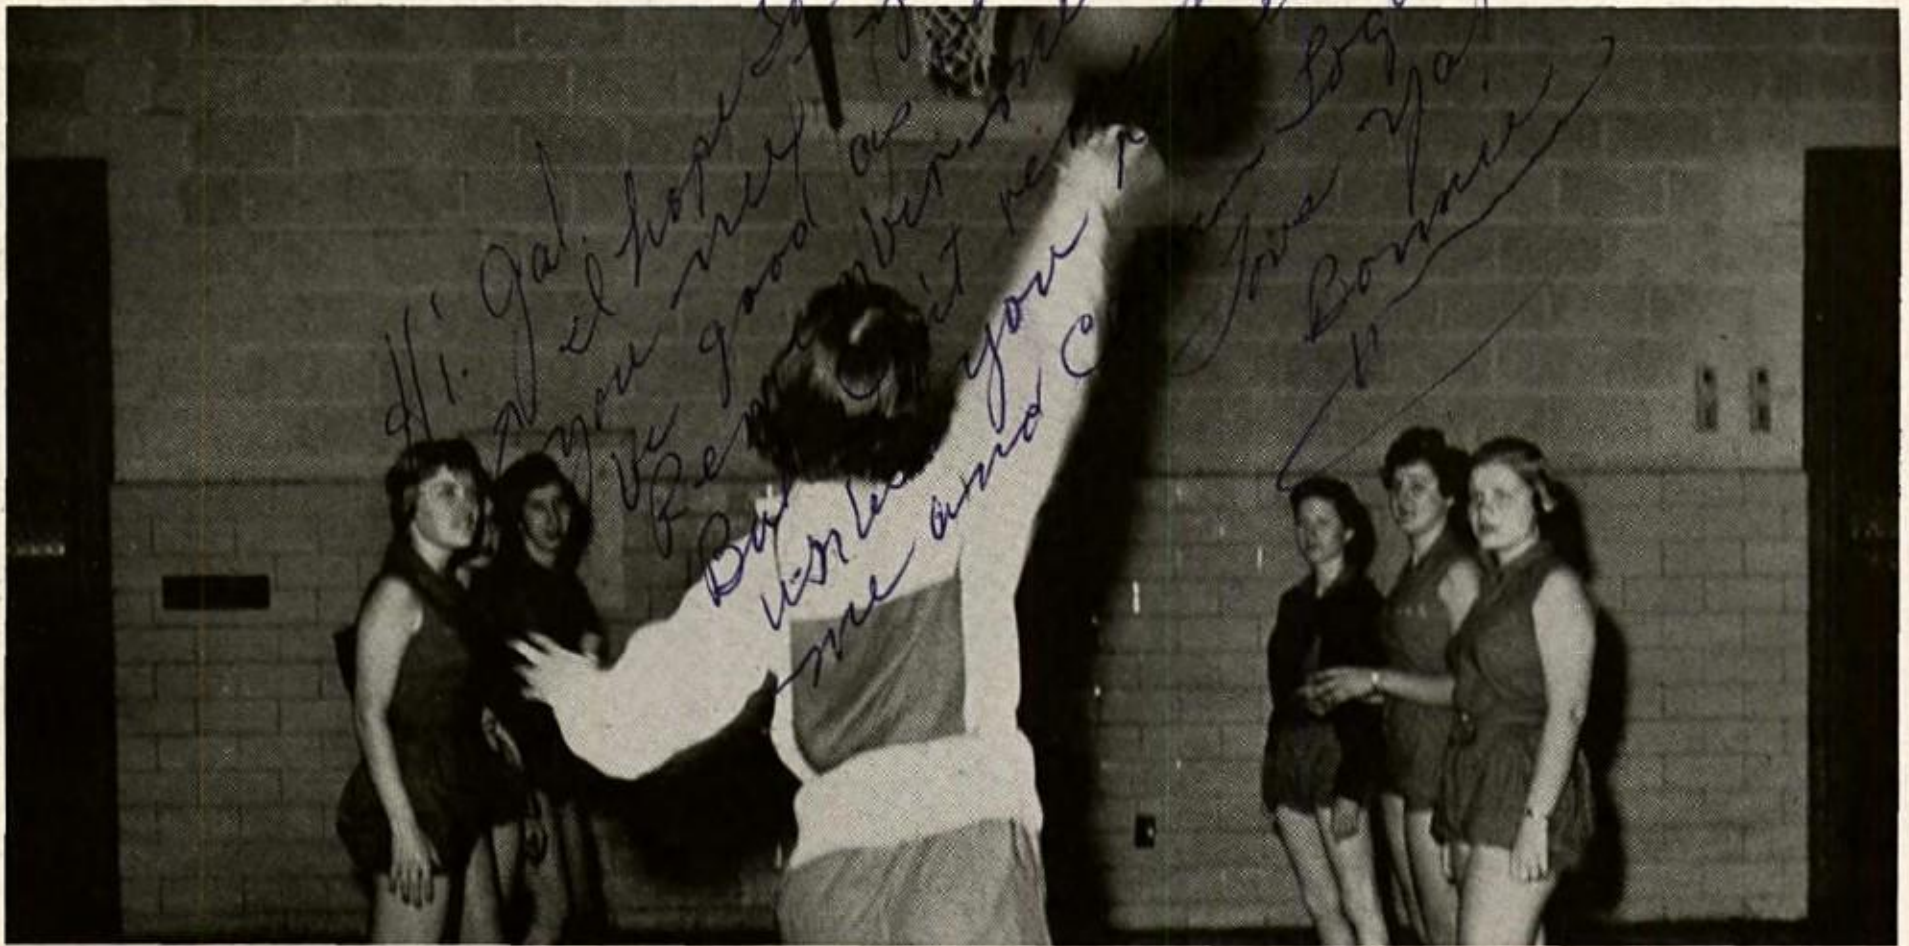

Mr. Davis instructs boys in welding.

At James Wood there are many skills which may be learned by those boys who are interested in using their hands, plus tools, to do some kind of creative work. By the use of saws, welders, and numerous other machines and tools, many homes have had finished pieces of furniture added to their interiors.

The people who make this possible are the three vocational agriculture teachers and Mr. Duvall, the shop teacher. Through their instruction, the boys are able to learn the use of various power machines and hand tools. In later years this knowledge will help them in their work and in their homes.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

A tense moment at the foul line during a girls' basketball game.

Mr. Hillyard uses a chart of the circulatory system to instruct students in the principles of proper body care.

The physical education department seeks to encourage and stimulate the student's participation and interest in athletic games and sports; to promote good sportsmanship; and to cultivate a spirit of co-operation and fellowship.

Since the girls and boys are unable to use the gymnasium at the same time, they alternate days having Driver Education and health in the classroom two days of the week.

Boys participate in intramural and extramural sports which include football, basketball, and baseball. Also the girls meet twice a week for intramural sports which include basketball, volleyball, and softball.

Through the years home economics has combined science and art in problems related to the individual and the home. At James Wood, to keep pace with the changing times, we endeavor to take the fundamentals of pure science, social sciences, and the arts, and apply them to the improvement of family living, thus furthering the general education of the classes. Home economics is offered to girls in the ninth, tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades.

Cynthia Hare and Bonnie Hammock learn to use modern conveniences in home economics classes.

HOME ECONOMICS

Miss Watson supervises her girls during the beginning steps of learning to sew.

Mrs. Humphries guides students during home nursing studies.

"Don't watch the typewriter," is a familiar sound as Mr. Ware instructs his typing class.

BUSINESS TRAINING

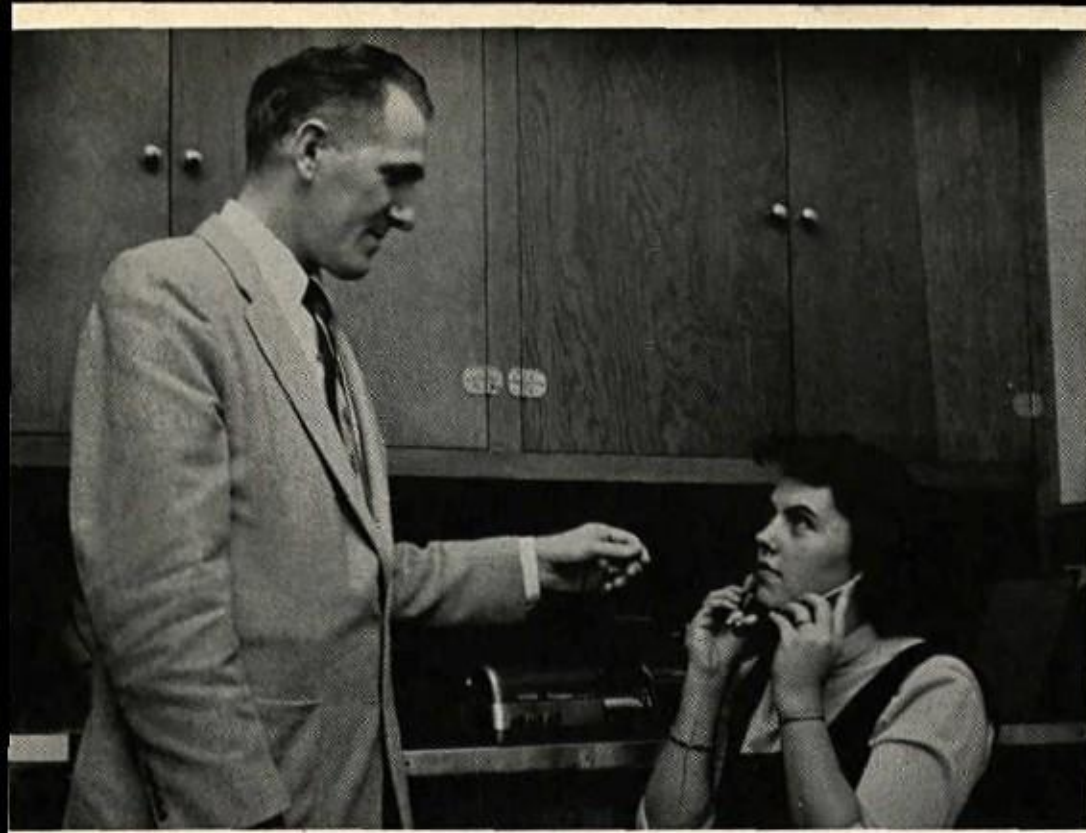

The business education program at James Wood provides valuable information and skills for the student after graduation. Many students are able to obtain steady jobs upon graduation at businesses and offices in Winchester.

The business department trains students in general business, typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, dictation, transcription, and vocational office training.

General Business is of interest to all students. Here Mr. Watach explains why.

VOCATIONAL OFFICE TRAINING

Pat DeHaven is being instructed in the use of the dictaphone, from which she will transcribe a letter.

Vocational Office Training, a part of the Business Education Department at James Wood, is the final step in the business major's program of studies.

Under this program the students during their senior year are permitted to work in an office in the afternoon after attending classes at school in the morning.

As a result of this office experience the students are able to do actual work, learning how to operate various office machines, file and keep records, and many other phases of office procedures.

At present fifteen students are enrolled in office training and work in various offices in the community.

Students in VOT learn the preparation and use of the Mimeograph machine. Here, Shirley Clemons is demonstrating the preparation.

Shirley Crosen receives additional practice in taking dictation.

A check for $777 which was raised during the polio drive is presented to treasurer, Curtis Wilson, right, by DE members, Author Lingo, Shirley Molden, and Walter Lockhardt.

Ann Chapin and Patsy Williams give sales demonstration, one of the many subjects in the studies of a DE student.

Bill Kerns arranges D E Merchandise Manual.

DISTRIBUTIVE

Under the Distributive Education program at James Wood juniors and seniors, who have a "C" average or better, have the opportunity of learning salesmanship and business methods both in the classroom and from actual experience on the job. Also, D E students receive credits toward graduation if they work their required 540 hours for the year.

Bill Kerns practices merchandise presentation speech before members of class.

D E students, Phyllis Eaton and Joe Kenny practice a job interview.

Sam Blaney and Ethel Lewis arrange a display on the D E bulletin board for the interest of all James Wood students.

EDUCATION

This year thirty five first and second year students are employed on a part-time basis in twenty three different businesses in Winchester and Fredrick County.

During the year such subjects as selling, stockkeeping, advertising, grooming, speech, and store operation are covered in the classroom for use on the job.

AGRICULTURE

Learning by doing, the boys are building turkey nests.

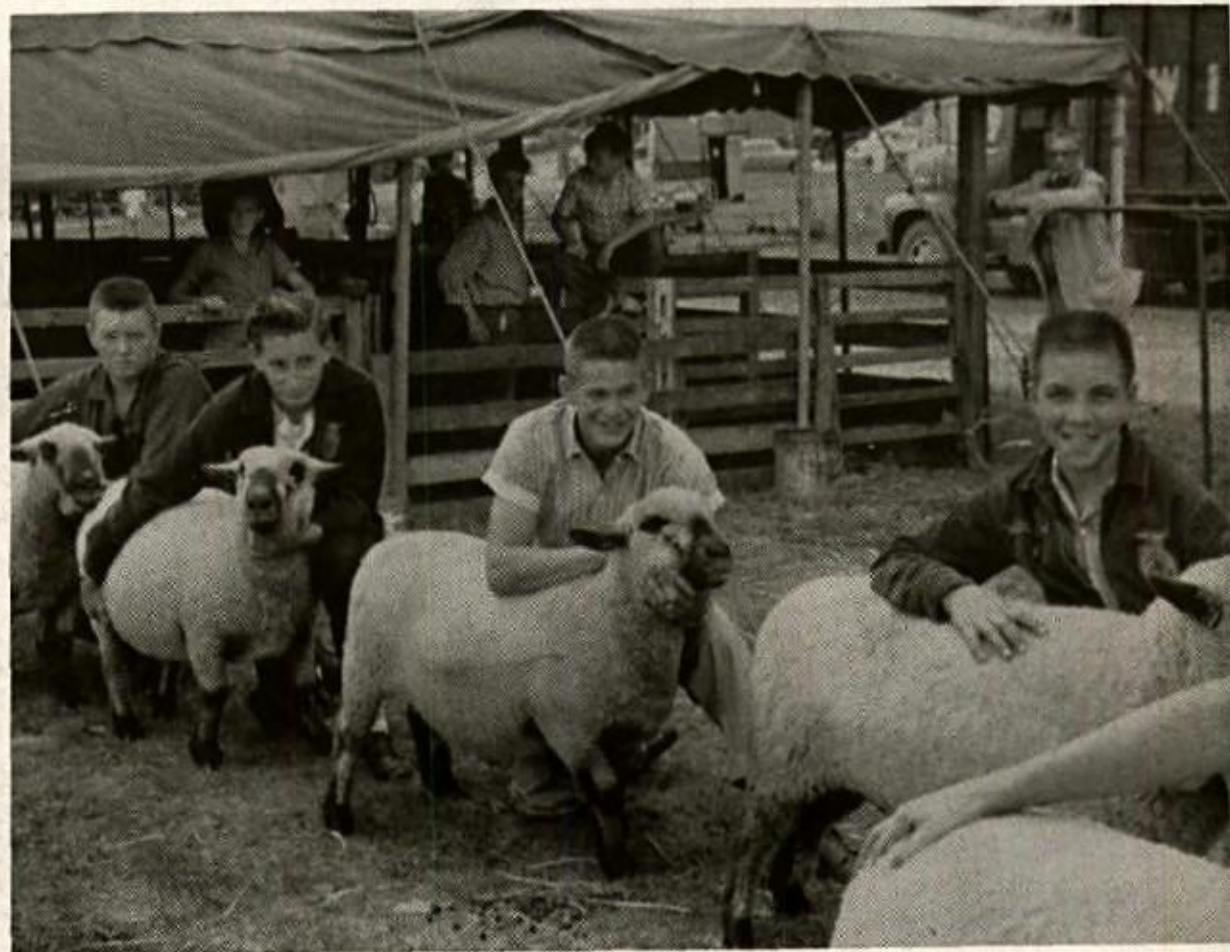

Vocational Agriculture at James Wood provides instruction for three groups: the All-Day group, the young Farmer group, and the Adult Farmer group.

The one hundred and twenty-nine students enrolled in the All-Day group receive training through classroom study and home farm projects.

The Young Farmer group includes young men who have either graduated or left school and are now farming. They meet once each month to discuss problems they encounter as they advance in farm ownership.

The Adult Farmer program is in the form of a ten week course of two nights per week on farm machinery maintenance and other topics which present problems to the adult farmer.

Since James Wood lies in a rural area, the Vocational Agriculture program is one of the best and largest in the state.

The agriculture projects are many, here the boys are proudly showing their sheep.

ACTIVITIES

F.B.L.A. POLIO DANCE

Mrs. Whitlock presents the door prizes to two teenagers attending the F.B.L.A. Polio Dance.

"Come on everybody let's dance!"

Good music keeps everything smoothly moving along.

Mr. Wright stops by for the awarding of prizes.

Beauty and dress winners shown, from left to right, are Abby Miller, third place beauty; Katherine Patterson, first place dress; Janice Brumback, 1957-58 beauty winner; Mary Jobe, "Miss James Wood" 1958-59; Janet Hulver, second place beauty and third place dress; and Barbara Crosen, second place dress.

BETA CLUB BEAUTY CONTEST

The Beta Club sponsored its annual beauty and dress pageant on November 21 at seven thirty under the direction of Mrs. Elsie Hovermale and Mr. James C. Gordon.

Dressed in their beautiful gowns, the 58 beauties presented a colorful scene as each tried for the title of "Miss James Wood."

Mr. Joe Pasquali, WINC radio announcer and master of ceremonies for the event, added a touch of wit to entertain the audience and to help the contestants smile and feel more at ease.

The judges, who made the final and difficult decision, were Mr. and Mrs. Devereux, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence White, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Grubb, all of Clark County.

Chosen in the beauty division were third place, Abby Miller; second place, Janet Hulver; and first place, Mary Jobe.

Mary Jobe, "Miss James Wood" for 1958-59, was crowned by "Miss James Wood" of 1957-58, Janice Brumback.

The three winners of the dress division were Janet Hulver, third place; Barbara Crosen, second place; and Katherine Patterson, first place winner.

FREDERICK COUNTY FAIR

The Frederick County Agriculture Fair is held each year at the Winchester Armory. The main purpose of the fair is to acquaint citizens of the county and Winchester with the work of their youth. It provides excellent opportunity and experience for students to recognize good products and to further their education in both homemaking and agricultural work.

Through these exhibits a clearer picture is given to the general public on the type and quality of products each department produces.

Janet Hulver and Glory Pingley look at an exhibit on teen-age budgeting. This type of exhibit was shown for the first time this year.

The regular lineup at WINC Monday night reads, left to right, Ruth Ann, Mr. Curle, Joe and Tom.

A lead in is given to Evelyn Riley as she prepares to deliver a message entitled "My True Security."

CHATTER PARTY

Every week the S.C.A. of James Wood co-operates with Clark County High and Strasburg High in producing a student interest program called "Chatter Party."

Ruth Potts of James Wood and Tom Culver of Clark County are the two M.C.'s, with Joe Lee of James Wood and Mr. Curle, instructor at Strasburg filling out the rest of the regular list.

Ruth Ann, Joe, and Tom are ready to come in on mike as Evelyn finishes her speech.

As well as plenty of "chatter" about the activities concerning the students in the area, records and public interest items are presented each week.

An enjoyable half-hour program is presented for teens and adults both in hopes they will gain more knowledge of efforts being made by each group to help unite the two.

Roy Nester keeps things running smoothly from the main control room.

Head phones on and records ready to go, as the two familiar M.C.'s open Chatter Party with their theme song "Tricky."

STUDENT COOPERATIVE ASSOCIATION

Every student in James Wood High School is a member of the Student Co-operative Association. The purpose is to develop good citizenship throughout the school, and to foster a wholesome atmosphere between the faculty, administration and the student body.

Each year the S.C.A. helps orient new students, sponsors clubs, and has as its responsibility, conduct in the halls, cafeteria and auditorium.

Starting this year the James Wood S.C.A. co-operated with other area high schools in the weekly presentation of a student interest radio program telling all the events in the area that were of interest to the students.

The service performed by the S.C.A. for the school was to operate a concession stand at all home football games. In turn the S.C.A. received a percentage of the profits to use to send delegates to the district, state and national meetings. This year our school was honored when Ruth Ann Potts was elected Secretary of the State S.C.A.

When the theme for the year, "Realize Your Responsibilities" is achieved as we feel it has been, then the ideals of the S.C.A. are no longer ideals, but standards of action.

A gavel and flaming candles are given by out-going President Dickie Goode as a symbol of the trust and co-operation extended by the student body as their new officers for the year willingly accept the responsibilities and honor.

The SCA activities are many and varied. They run the gamut from concession stands to radio shows and assembly programs. The goal of the SCA is the unifying of the student body and administration.

Mr. Gordon speaks to the students at an assembly sponsored by the SCA.

Sitting, Left to Right: Janet Duncan, Secretary; Gary Strickler, Chairman; Jimmy Sprinkle, Mrs. Hoagland. Standing: Bobby Carter, Charles Duvall, Mr. Miller.

One of the most important divisions of the S.C.A. is the Honor Court, which hears all the charges against students and recommends penalties to the principal. The group consists of a chairman and one representative from each class.

BETA CLUB

The National Beta Club was organized in order to promote the ideals of honesty, service, and leadership among high school students of America, to reward meritorious achievement, and to encourage and assist students to continue their education after high school.

The James Wood Chapter states that no student with an average under a B will be admitted, and each student must conform to the statements of the above policy.

During the past year the Beta Club held its annual Beta Club Beauty Contest on Friday, November 21, 1958, with approximately 50 girls participating. In December the initiation ceremony was held in connection with the Beta Banquet. Also many of the members attended the State Beta Club Convention which was held in Richmond, Virginia. This included visits to Jamestown, Yorktown and Williamsburg.

LIBRARY CLUB

The purpose of this club is to teach its members the efficient operation of our library. The members learn to shelve and repair books, and keep everything in the library in an orderly fashion.

The members of the club try to get everyone acquainted with the library so that the students can help themselves and others by browsing, studying and doing research quietly and quickly.

SAFETY PATROL

The main purpose of the safety patrol is to assist the bus drivers in order to prevent accidents and maintain discipline on the buses. Patrol members are assigned to each of the buses, but, since some smaller elementary schools are on our bus routes, not all safety patrol members are from James Wood.

The James Wood safety record is a perfect one and it is hoped that all students will co-operate to keep it this way. Co-operation with Mr. Funkhouser and the safety patrol members is definitely essential for the safety of the students riding the buses.

SPANISH CLUB

The purpose of the Spanish Club is to offer the opportunity for the alumni, as well as for those actively engaged in the study of Spanish, to get together for social and cultural activities.

At each club meeting a previously chosen Spanish-speaking country is studied through films and discussions. In this way we learn to appreciate the culture of the people whose language we study in class.

Among our social activities each year are an initiation party and a picnic.

The classic manner of Roman life is carried out by the Latin Club. The major activities of Latin Club are the Janus Ball and the Latin Banquet.

The Janus Ball is a semi-formal dance held in honor of the Greek Goddess, Janus, for whom the month of January is named.

Latin Week is held annually in high schools throughout the United States during the week of April 21. James Wood's club takes an active part by holding a banquet in true Roman style, with the first year students as the slaves and second year students as the masters. The club is not completely social. Latin is used in the arts and sciences today and the club strives to bring about the appreciation of the Roman language, customs, laws, and people to the student who is striving to master the language.

A genuine appreciation of music has been given to the musicians at James Wood by their directors, Mr. George H. Turner and Miss Joan Beazley.

The band intrigues us with their performances at the football games, but few realize the practice put into this short display. The A Cappella Choir surprises us with a blending of voices which always produces beautiful music.

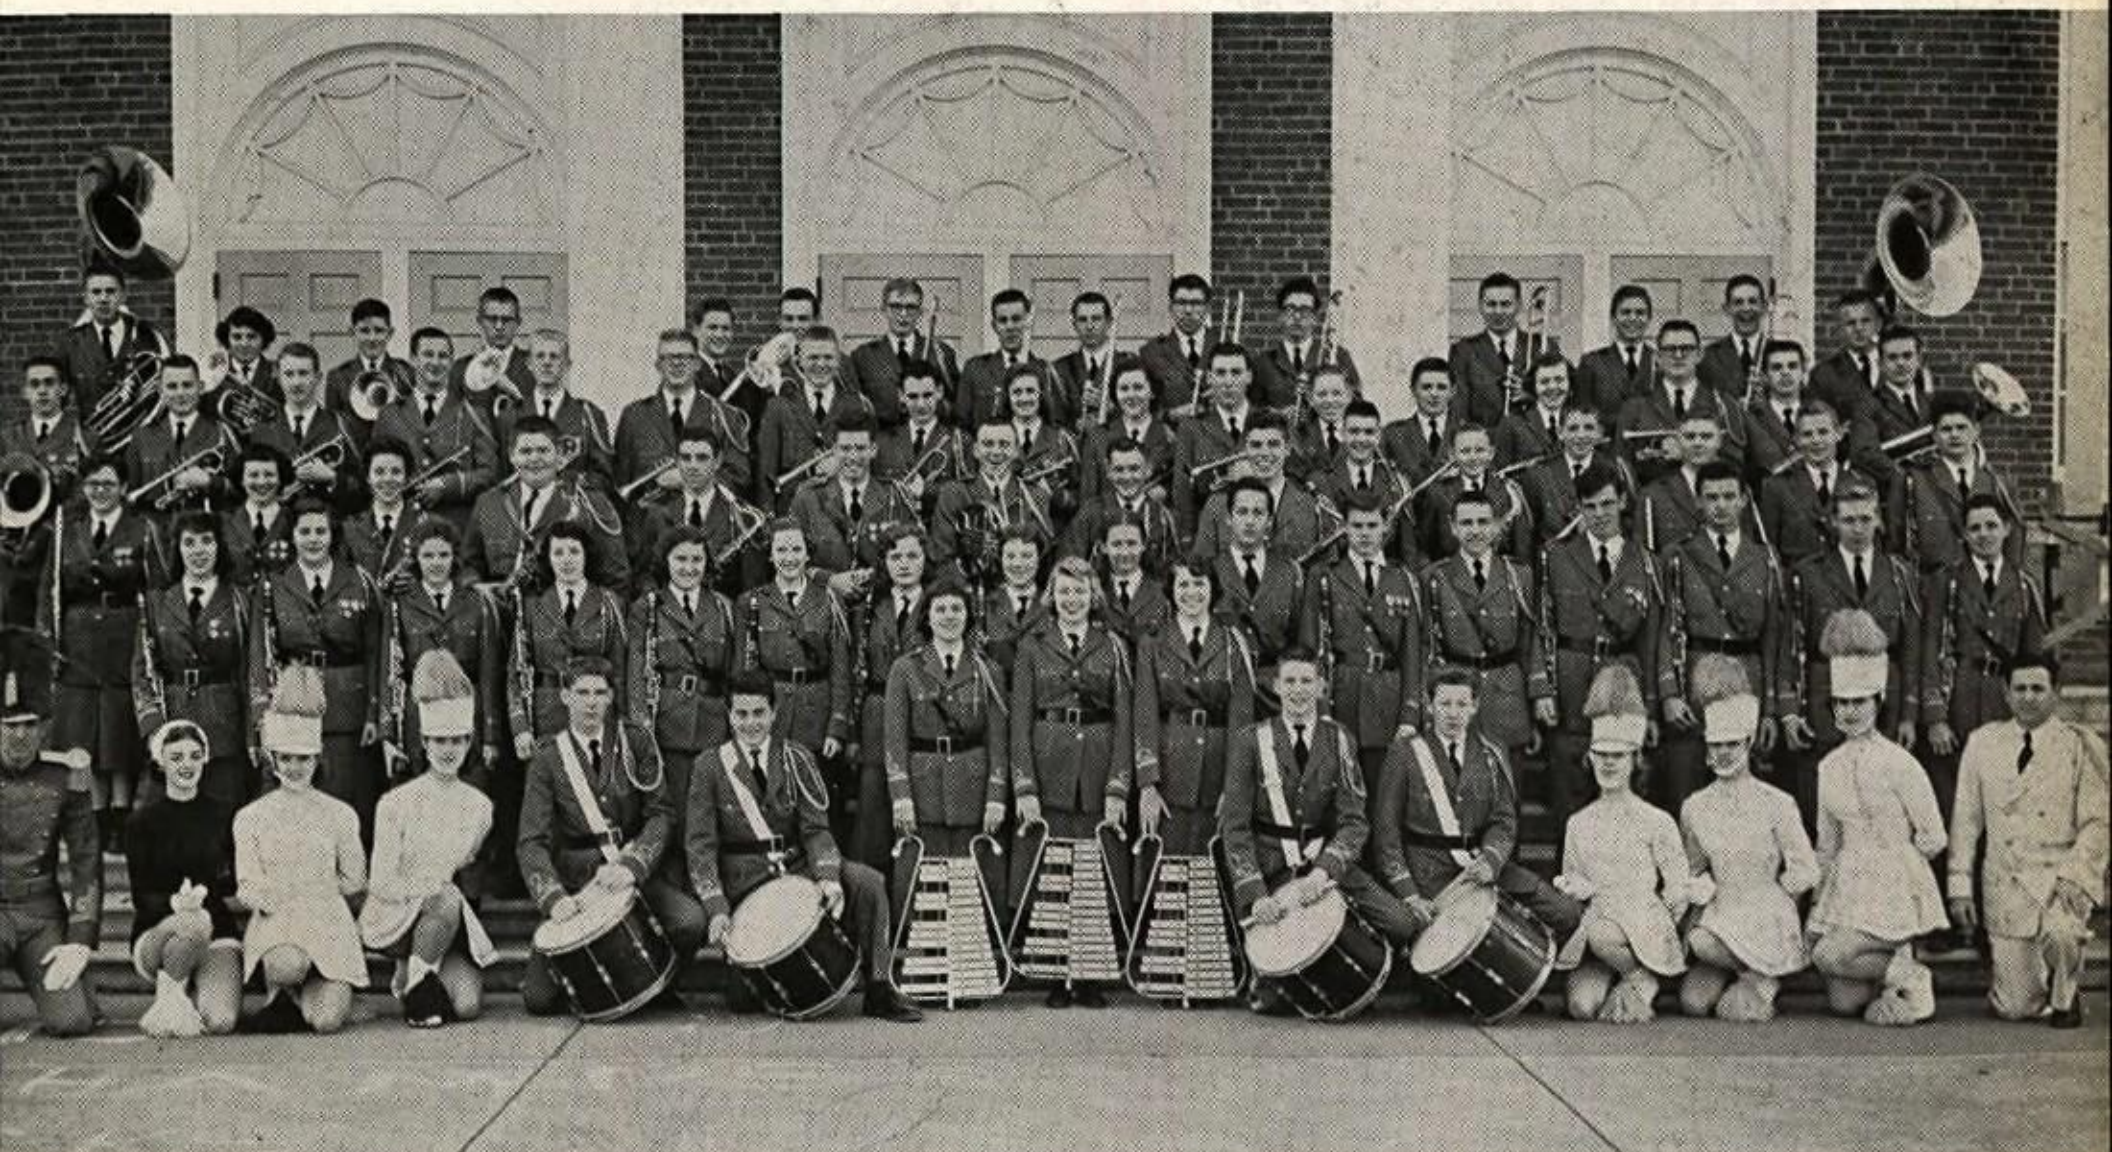

Through the music program at James Wood, our student life has been enriched.

At the beginning of this year James Wood had a junior band of 53 members, the largest in the history of this school. The junior band is composed of students who have had no previous musical training.

This band meets five times weekly for class instruction and each member is scheduled for one private lesson per week.

Mr. Miller has started a band at Robinson Memorial School.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

*Thank you
JoAnn Whitman*

Due to the direction of past instructors and the fine work of Miss Beazley, who is now director, the A Cappella Choir has become a well established part of our school.

The choir is composed of high school students who have auditioned and met the specified qualifications. They put forth much effort to bring to the students and public a fine selection of music.

During the school year the choir entertained the students and public through many well organized concerts. The annual Christmas and Spring Concerts are the main features of the A Cappella Choir.

This year seven members of the choir were selected to represent James Wood in Virginia's northern district choir. This choir, consisting of over 200 high school students, assembled at Waynesboro High School on February 20-22. Its members were chosen according to previous experience and vocal ability. Those selected from James Wood were Joanne Dellinger, soprano; Bertha Kettlewell, alto; Sam Hepner, tenor; Neal Painter, tenor; John Venskoske, tenor; Edward Shiley, bass; Arthur Rowe, bass.

GLEE CLUB

"Lift your voices and sing," are the familiar words heard by the Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Beazley. The members of the Glee Club are students from the ninth, tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades who enjoy group singing and solo work. Each day the Glee Club meets in the auditorium for practice. Students participating in the group receive one half credit toward graduation for their effort and cooperation.

Through the year the club takes part in assembly programs and the annual Spring Concert, which is shared with the Bands, and the A Cappella Choir.

Since it was first organized at James Wood, the Key Club has become known as one of the most prominent and serviceable organizations in the school. It is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Winchester, Virginia, Inc. and shares with this larger group its ideals, purpose, and form of organization.

The Key Club's main function is as a service organization and a very large proportion of its activities were service projects for the school and community. These included helping with the Kiwanis Pancake Day and contributing books to the school library. Outstanding among its recreational activities was the sponsorship of the Key Club basketball team.

Not Present: Shirley Crosen, Joanne Glover, Sandy Hunt, Abby Miller, Patty Newlin, Anne O'Leary, Ruth Petrie, Mary Jo Rogers, Gay Ann Patton.

At James Wood girls of good character who believe in and practice Christian ideals work together in the Tri-Hi-Y to extend these ideals throughout this school and this community. The Tri-Hi-Y is a branch of the Young Women's Christian Association.

The purpose of the Tri-Hi-Y is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character through clean speech, clean sportsmanship, and clean living.

This year the Northern District Conference was held at James Wood; members of the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y co-operated to make it a success. Other projects were devotions during each lunch period; caroling at nursing homes and hospitals; and Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter devotions in school. The Tri-Hi-Y with the Hi-Y have these and many other projects to fulfil their purpose of striving toward high standards of Christian living.

HI-Y

The Hi-Y is composed of boys who are interested in promoting a Christian atmosphere in our school and the surrounding area. On various occasions they collaborate with the Tri-Hi-Y.

In the spring the club participates in the General Assembly at Richmond. The club elects house members, a senator, and a page. This program is conducted similarly to that of the House of Congress in Virginia.

The chief aim of the Tri-Hi-Y is to promote a better Christian outlook.

Officers — Front to Back: Sterling Shockey, Secretary; Stephen Starliper, Chaplain; Carl Straw, Historian; David Russell, Vice-President; William Orndorff, President; Thomas Sullivan, Treasurer.

This year marks Mr. Biddle's second year as Distributive Education Co-ordinator.

During the past two years, with his guidance the DE program has expanded greatly, and this year is the first time for the sponsor development plan where the students' sponsors meet together several times during the year to discuss their progress, develop new ways of helping the students on the job, and also help the co-ordinator by giving him ideas to use in the classroom.

The purpose of the Distributive Education Club is to learn the ABC's of merchandising, to exchange ideas, to develop leadership, and to set high occupational standards. Through this program students who are interested in going into the field of distribution have a chance to earn while they learn.

Students under this program have the opportunity to participate with the club in contests on the district and state levels. Such contests as job interviewing, sales demonstration, merchandise presentation, D.E. student of the year, Window display judging, ad layouts and copywriting are sponsored by the local club with the local winners going to the district meeting. The club also has special projects during the year which include the employer-employee banquet, the scholarship fund, and the blotter sale.

Row One: Betty Conard, Mary Jo Rogers. Row Two: Nancy Davis, George Poole, Shirley Clemons. Row Three: Patsy Parker, Joanna Glover, Joan Ballowe. Row Four: Phyllis Brannon, Shelby Clowser, Sue Petrie. Row Five: Anne O'Leary, Carop Campbell, Gail While. Row Six: Shirley Crosen, Mr. Perrault.

Mary Jo Rogers, President; Anne O'Leary, Vice-President; Nancy Davis, Secretary; Shirley Clemons, Treasurer; Sue Petrie, Reporter.

The Vocational Office Training program is divided into two parts. These include a regular course in office training in the morning at the school and afternoon work in the offices in the Winchester area to provide the students with first-hand business experience. Two credits are given toward graduation under this program.

The program itself is valuable in that it prepares the students for further study in office work and gives them an opportunity to secure a steady, interesting job after graduation.

Each year the Vocational Office Training class holds a banquet for the employers at one of the local restaurants.

The athletes of our school who make up the Boys' Monogram Club have participated in inter-scholastic competition of football, basketball, baseball, and track, and earned their letter by fulfilling the requirements as set up by the club. In order for an athlete to qualify for his letter he must either participate in half of the periods of the games or earn a certain number of points in track.

The Monogram Club holds an annual basketball game with the men of the James Wood faculty, the proceeds of which are used to pay for the letters. This year the club basketball team participated in James Wood's intramural basketball program.

In order for a girl to join the Girls' Monogram Club, she must participate in the girls' intramurals and earn 500 points. The three main sports in intramurals are basketball, volleyball, and softball. The girls earn 100 points for participating in each sport and 50 points if they are on the winning team. When a girl earns 500 points, she is admitted into the Girls' Monogram Club.

The Girls' Monogram Club gives girls the opportunity to participate in extracurricular sports.

CORVETTE — Billy Boyce, Sam Hepner, Captain; David Elder.

THUNDERBIRD — Roy Bly, Mike Perry, Captain; Mickey Copp, Jimmy Fost.

MODEL T — Charles Wilhams, Billy Morrison, Captain, Ronnie DeHaven, Rhodes Marston.

Each Monday evening the Boys' Bowling Club meets at the bowling alley in Winchester under the sponsorship of Mr. Funkhouser and in co-operation with the Health Center Bowling Lanes. This year there are six teams, all taking their names from cars. The teams bowl for two halves of 45 games each, with the winners of each half meeting for the Championship. At the end of the year awards are given to the members of the winning team and to the boys with the highest average, highest game and highest set. No member may win more than one of the three latter awards.

IMPALA — Jerry Kremer, Edwin Fiddler, Captain; Monroe Heishman.

FORD — Jimmy Lawyer, Rusty McDonald, Gary Strickler, Captain; Charles Gossard.

SETTA — Cecil Renner, Jimmy Halterman, Brady Ellis, Captain; Wayne Ziegler.

"I got a strike!" yells an excited girl. At the Health Center Alleys this is one of the many sounds heard on Wednesday afternoons after school when the Girls' Bowling Club meets. The club is composed of twelve teams, sponsored by local business firms and organizations. These teams compete against each other for first, second, and third place honors.

Anne Grove and Margie Sheetz are the deciding bowlers as two teams bowl to break a tie.

WOOD POST STAFF

To set down the news and social events of James Wood High School in a brief, accurate, and entertaining style is quite a responsibility. This responsibility rests with the Wood Post Staff, which is made up of seniors who have maintained a high average in their English courses and who are journalism class members especially in newspaper work.

The Wood Post is published eight times during the school year and may be purchased by subscription or single copy.

Left to Right: Tommy Hancher, Evelyn McCray, Marika Whitacre, Bobby Brown, Douglas Matheny, Debbie Ward. Row Two: Billy Boyce, Anita Bame, Peggy Franklin, Linda Graw, Mary Plummer, Shirley Orndorff, Mary Jo Rogers, Phyllis Brannon, Nancy Davis, Vada Kerns, Monroe Heishman. Row Three: David Russell, Robert Connelly, George Nixon, Donald Brown, Gary Strickler, Henry Brown, Joe Lee, Lloyd Renner, Ruth Ann Potts.

If the members of the 1959 Woodbine staff were to verbally express the emotions and efforts projected into this year's annual, perhaps it would be — "to make the personality and spirit of our Alma Mater tangible through the pages of our yearbook." Confronting the staff was the inevitable question, "how can this be best achieved?"

Following the policy of complete changes in organization established by last year's staff, the present staff put forth their best to achieve their aim of making the intangibles of James Wood become realities witnessed on the pages of the Woodbine. Working toward this end, they sold a record high of 615 yearbooks.

Spot coloring, full color liners, individual pictures of all classes, additional feature pictures, and a summer supplement of all spring activities keynote the marked advances accomplished this year.

Mr. James Biddle with his experienced advice and guidance has aided the staff in producing a Woodbine that exhibits a new approach in editing — an approach recognized as outstanding, as challenging to future Woodbine staffs, and as one that truly depicts the life of James Wood High School.

Co-Editors, Ruth Potts and Gary Strickler.

Belva*

The purpose of the Art Club is to help further the work begun in the art classes. One of its primary functions is to assist other clubs and departments on occasions when various types of art work are required. Many colorful posters are made to advertise various school activities and drives.

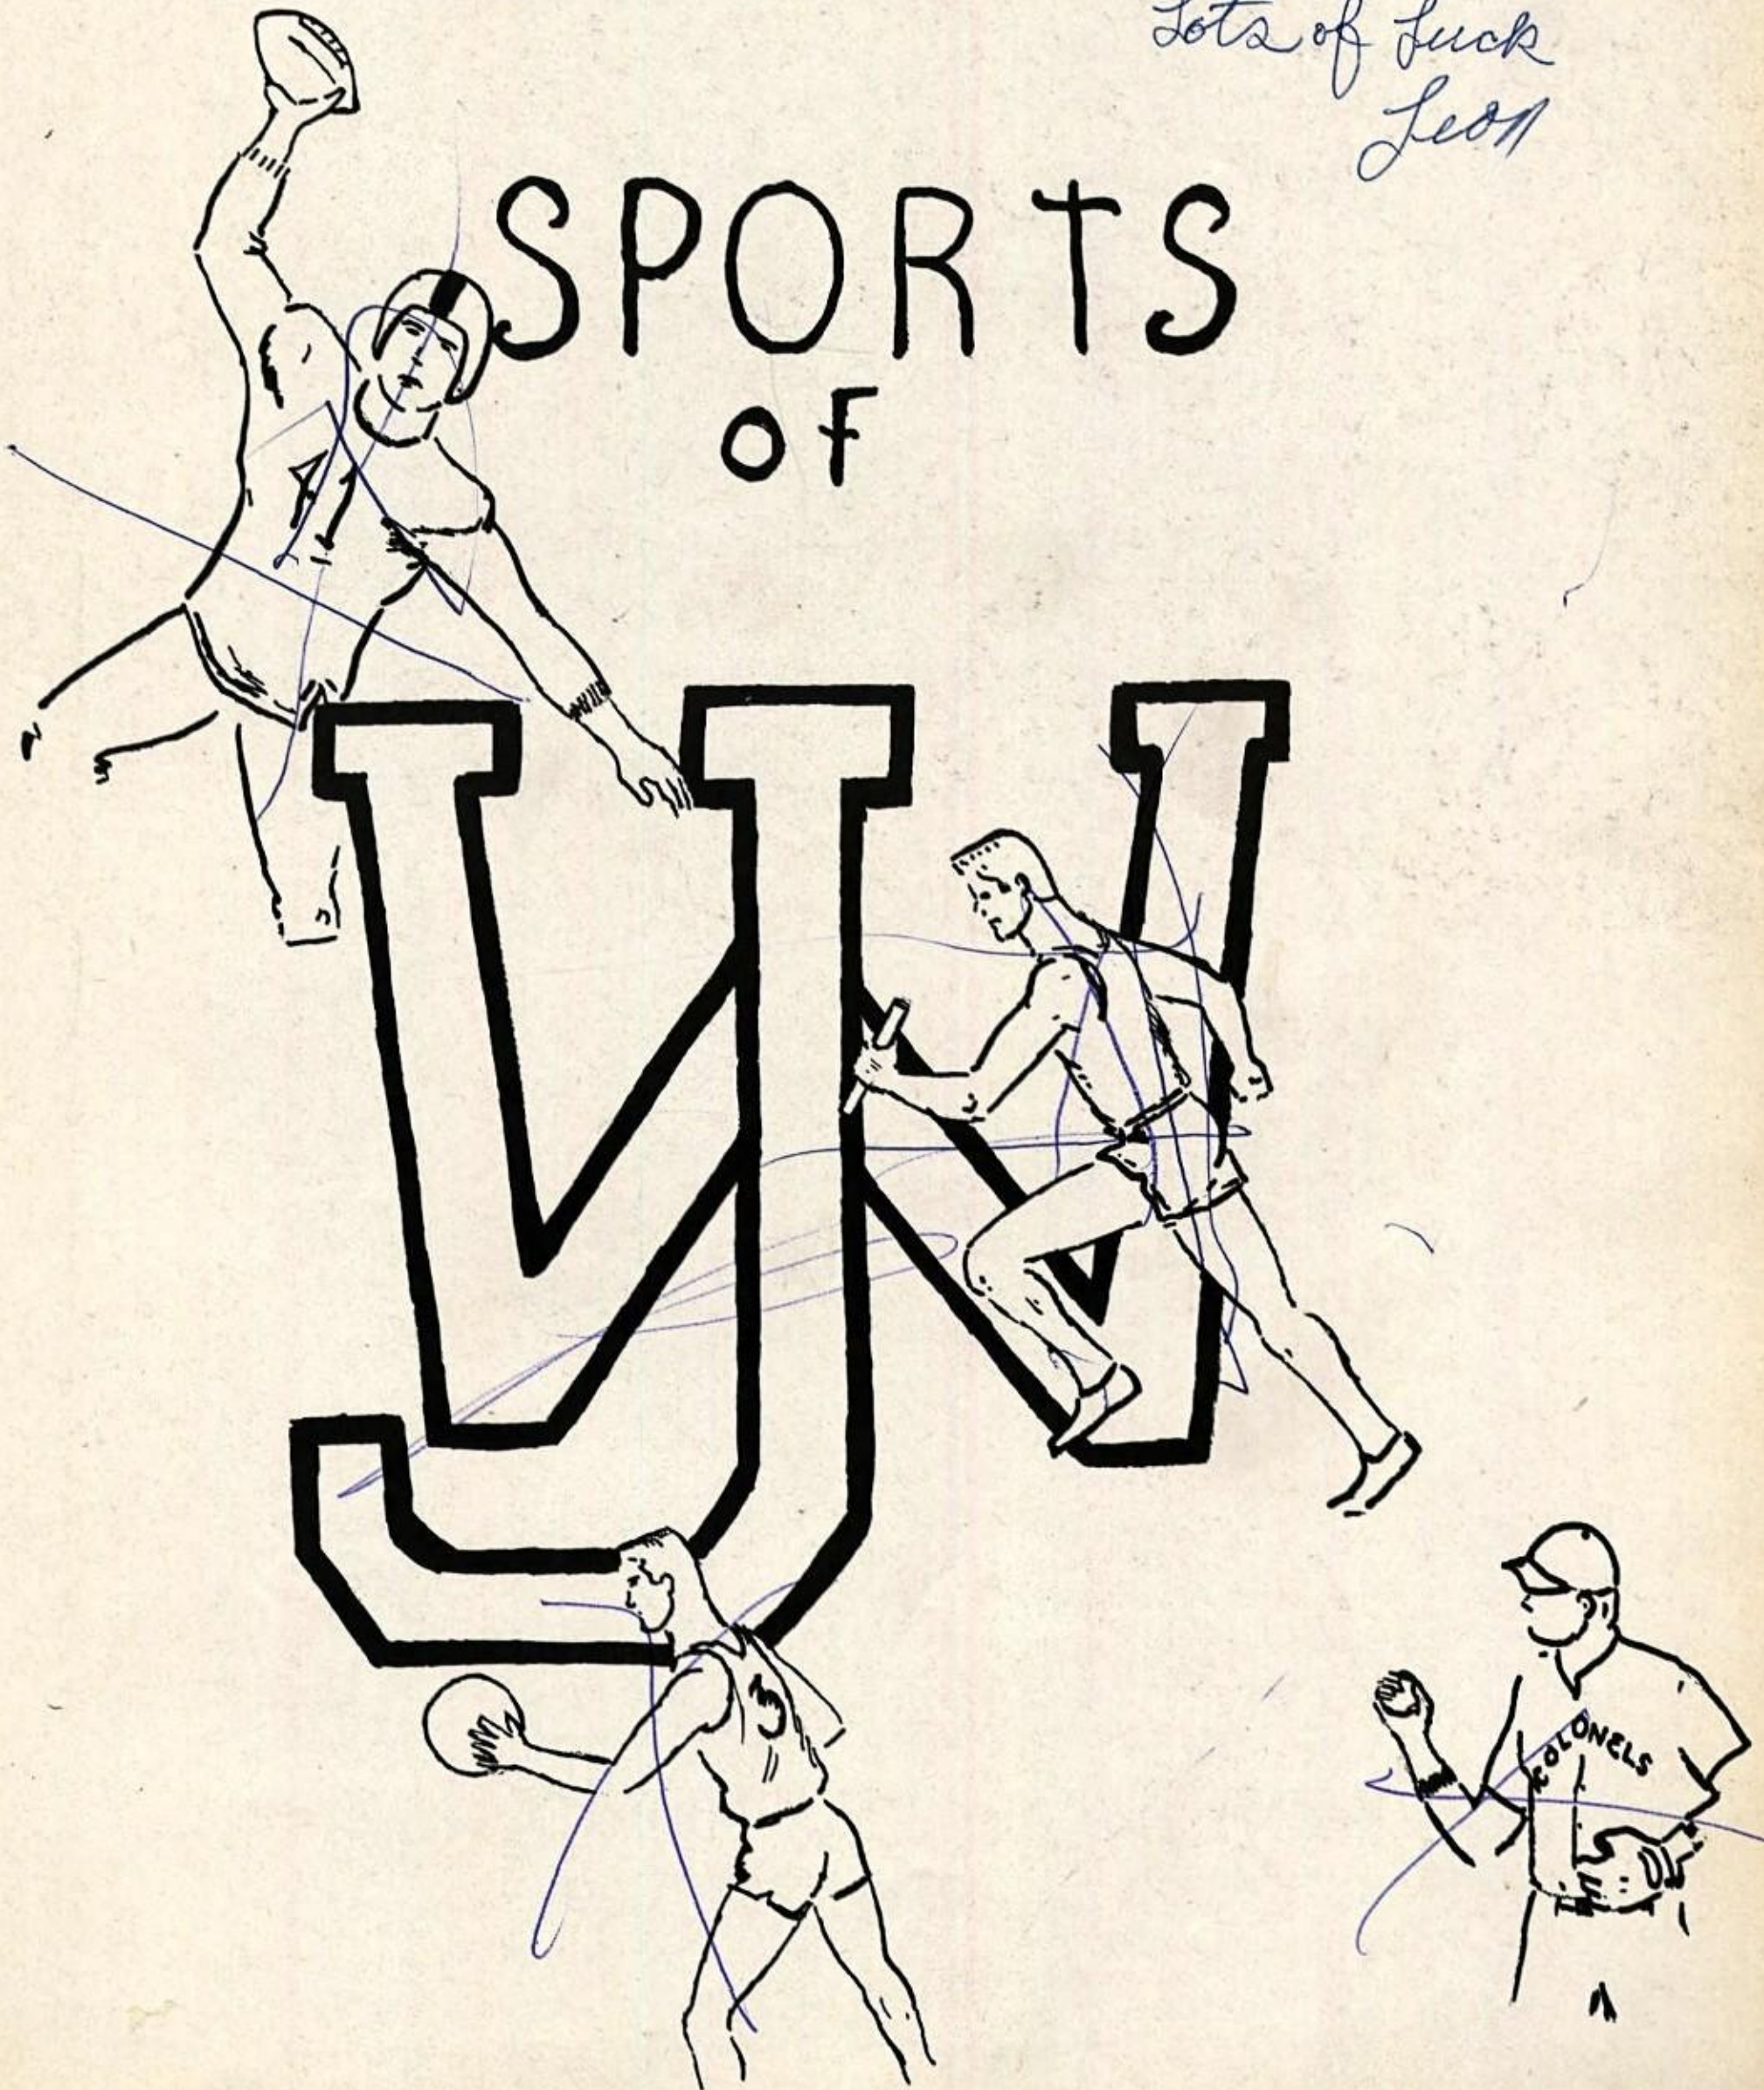

When stage decorations are needed for special events the Art Club is called upon. The large front windows are appropriately "done" at Christmas.

Perhaps the most ambitious project undertaken by the club is helping the junior class decorate the gym for the prom.

The highlight of the school year for this club is the annual tour of the National Gallery of Arts at Washington, D. C. to study the original works of great artists.

Hi Sandra

The football team did not have quite as good a record for the football season as it had in the past season. The record was 1 - 5 in District play and 1 - 8 in overall play.

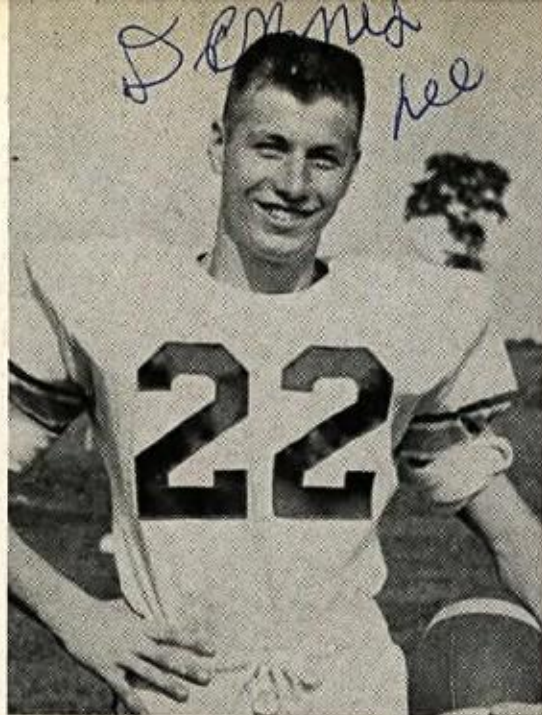

Although the team did not have quite a good season as expected, it was much better than what it looked to be.

One example of this was the Luray game, as James Wood held Luray to a 12 - 0 score!

The team was plagued with many injuries of the key players. But all in all the boys did their best!

We would like to congratulate the team for the splendid job they did; even if they did come out as the underdogs of the season.

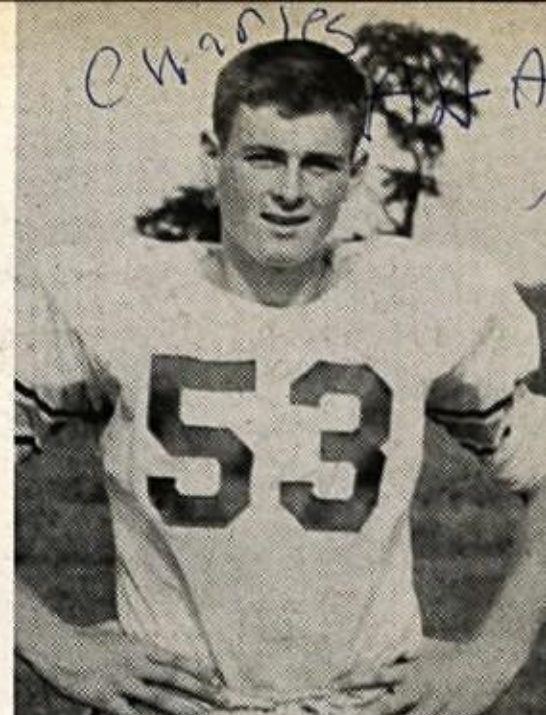

All the boys played good ball and each of them should be congratulated!

These top five players have hustled their way into the hearts of the J. W. students. They have played all their games with all the characteristics of a professional ball club.

Full credit is also due to the remaining basketball squad who have shown their ability as upcoming players.

Honor — as well as credit should be given to our coach, Mr. Casey, who has produced two District Ten Championship Teams prior to this year.

Amid the cheers and shouts of the James Wood students the voices of our vivacious cheerleaders are heard above all.

These six young girls and one substitute from the junior and senior classes strive to keep the spirit alive during every moment of each game no matter if James Wood is on the winning or losing side of the score.

Many hours are spent in mastering new cheers and in developing their cheering skill.

The two co-captains serve as go-betweens for the cheerleaders and administration.

The friendly and sportsmanlike way these girls conduct themselves is a compliment not only to them but to our school.

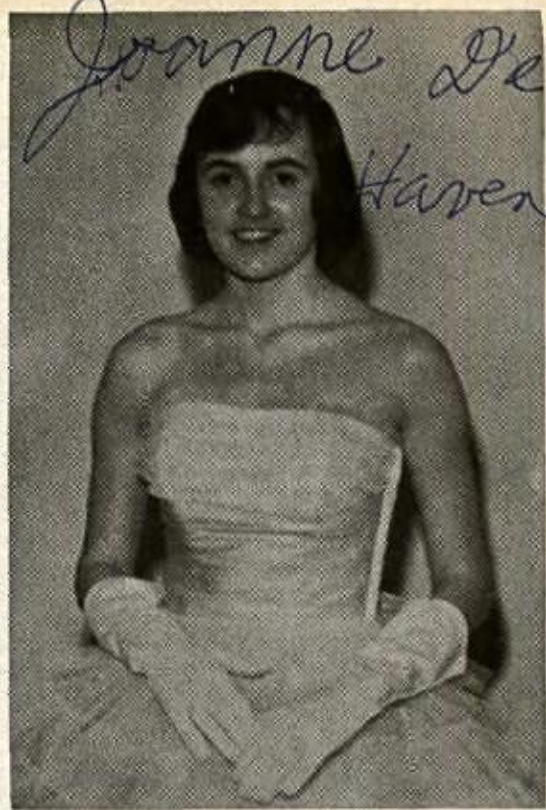

The students are indeed proud of them.

Emotions run riot and enthusiasm reigns among James Wood fans during an exciting game.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The staff of the 1959 Woodbine wishes to thank each and every individual who has contributed his time and talents to make this yearbook possible. To Mr. William A. Burton, representative of Inter-Collegiate Press, Inc., to our very co-operative and understanding principal, Mr. James Gordon, to our faithful yearbook sponsors, Mr. James Biddle and Mrs. Nancy Gardner Spry, and to Charlie Tait, Martin Gavis, Janice Brumback, and Barr's Studio who aided us greatly in the field of photography, we express our sincerest appreciation.
